SENATOR ATTACKS THE SHERMAN LAW

Resolution Adopted Asking Investigation After Remarks of Borah.

AS TO OPERATION OF THE LAW

May be Changed to Make Adequate Protection Against Unlawful Monopolies and Trusts—Want Amendments.

Washington, July 26.—Following an attack by Senator Borah, of Idaho, upon the enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law in the 20 years that it has been in existence, the Senate today adopted a resolution offered by Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, calling for an investigation into the operations of the law, to determine what changes or amendments are necessary to make it an adequate protection against unlawful monopolies and trusts. Mr. Borah's arraignment of the statute was inspired by Senator Pomerene, who called up his resolution demanding criminal prosecution of the officers of the Standard Oil and American Tobacco companies under the recent decision of the Supreme Court.

The resolution of Senator Clapp gives authority to the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission of which he is chairman, to conduct a searching inquiry into the operation of the law, and to make recommendations to the Senate of any changes it may think necessary "relating to the creation and control of corporations engaged in interstate commerce."

"Either the Sherman law is a failure," declared Senator Borah, "wrong in contemplation or law and inexpedient as an economic proposition or else there has been the most remarkable trifling with the execution of the law that has ever been noted since law was first placed upon the statute books to be regarded and objected by man."

Mr. Borah declared the Sherman law had been in effect for 20 years with four apparently "simple, efficient and drastic remedies" against illegal combinations or trusts.

"Yet every one knows that the last 20 years have been years in which the most remarkable progress has been made by these combinations," he said, "and not an embarrassment has been placed upon them, so far as their ultimate success was concerned, although this simple, efficient and drastic law has been upon the statute books all that time."

Without specifically mentioning the United States Steel Corporation Senator Borah declared that the Sherman anti-trust act was permitted to remain a dead letter during the time of the formation of this corporation, which, he added, has now apparently passed beyond the control of the Federal government. Mr. Borah stated that if he mistook not this powerful combination "places the stamp of approval or disapproval upon many an act of legislation in the Congress of the United States."

ENGLAND'S POLITICAL CRISIS

Solution Uncertain—Balfour and Lansdowne Leaders.

London, July 26.—The final solution of the political crisis is uncertain, but it may safely be assumed now that Balfour and Lansdowne will remain as leaders of the Unionist party.

Mr. Balfour, at one of the most serious crisis in his career has again proved himself to be an astute leader. No sooner was his letter affirming his intention to stand or fall by Lord Lansdowne published than the incipient mutiny collapsed. Organizers of the Halsbury banquet tumbled over each other to repudiate any disloyalty to Mr. Balfour. A list of more than 230 peers is published tonight, who, by letter, declare themselves to be supporters of Lord Lansdowne's policy and ready to allow the parliament bill to pass under protest.

The dinner referred to was given in honor of the Earl of Halsbury at which several hundred unionist peers, unionist members of the House of Commons and party workers attended.

The exact number of peers adhering to the Earl of Halsbury is not known but it is believed will not exceed 130. Great enthusiasm was displayed at the Halsbury banquet tonight, but all the speakers emphasized the view that they could exercise individual judgment without necessarily causing a breach in the party or implying disloyalty to the leaders.

SKELETON FOUND ON MAINE.

Slight Hope of Identification—Fountain Found.

Havana, July 26.—A skejeton, almost entire, but presenting sligh hope of identification, was discovered on the berth deck of the starboard side of the Maine today. There are the first ones found below the main deck, which has been now entirely explored. It is believed that the skeleton is that of a warrant officer whose quarters were in that section of the ship. This makes the total number of remains so far recovered approximately 14, leaving 60 bodies unrecovered. Practically all hope has been abandoned of the recovery of other remains forward of the central superstructure, as all that section has been destroyed.

TAFT SIGNS RECIPROCITY BILL

Interesting Scene at White House Yesterday—Messages of Congratulation from Many Notables to the President.

Washington, July 26.—President Taft signed the Canadian reciprocity bill at 3:10 P. M. today.

Secretary of State Knox, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, secretary to the President, Hilles, and Representative Littleton, of New York, several newspaper men and a battery of photographers witnessed the signing. As he picked up the pen the President turned to Secretary Knox.

"Come over here Brother Knox," he said, "you are responsible for this."

The Secretary of State stood beside the President as he placed his name on the parchment.

"It's done," said Mr. Knox.

"It's done," echoed the President as the two clasped hands across the desk.

To give the photographers a chance the President went through the motion of signing the act again a few seconds later.

"I didn't know there was so much interest in it as this," he said, "but—"

He was "snapped" wearing a broad smile.

The gold pen used by the President in signing the treaty was sent to Chairman Penrose, of the Senate Finance Committee, who led the fight for the bill in the Senate.

Instructions for the administration of so much of the law as is effective until the whole agreement is ratified by the Canadian Parliament, were telegraphed to customs collectors along the Canadian border today. The new regulations provide for proper identification of the imports to prove they are of Canadian origin and the State Department has been asked to instruct consular officers in Canada to add their certificates to the declarations of the importers.

Until the Canadian Parliament ratifies the agreement only section two, which covers wood pulp, paper and paper board, will be effective. The regulations under the new law provide free entry to all such imports from private lands or from crown lands, provided no export tax has been levied. British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec impose export duties on wood. New Brunswick will do so after October 1st.

Congratulations upon the passage of the measure kept the White House telegraph wires busy all day. Messages came to the British from friends all over the world. Secretary of War Stimson and Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, a close friend of Mr. Taft, cabled their congratulations from Panama; Secretary of Navy Meyer and former Secretary of the Interior R. A. Ballinger, sent warm messages.

"Cordial congratulations upon deserved success in your noble neighborly policy. Now for treaties, secure these; then rest. No other worlds to conquer."

From James J. Hill came this message:

"My warmest congratulations for your steadfast support of Canadian reciprocity. Its success will greatly benefit whole country without injury to any part."

One of the shortest messages was from J. C. Schmidlapp, of Cincinnati, a warm friend of the President, now in Europe. He cabled one word, "Shake."

NEW ORLEANS PROTESTS.

Against Reduction in Force and Equipment of Navy Yard.

Washington, July 26.—Protests from commercial bodies of New Orleans against the reduction of the force and equipment of the navy yard there were received by Acting Secretary of Navy Winthrop today. The communications expressed the belief that the decrease of the importance or the abandonment of the New Orleans naval station would expose the city to a disastrous attack in time of war. Mr. Winthrop has replied that a navy yard has no fortifications and cannot be regarded as a means of defense. On the other hand, he added, it was actually an invitation to attack as it is an axiom with naval commanders to attempt to destroy the navy yards of an enemy in order to cut off his base of supplies and repairs.

JEWELERS ON TO RICHMOND

National Association May Propose Uniform Stamping Laws.

Richmond, Va., July 25.—Jewelers from every part of the country will meet in Richmond next week. It is expected that a plan will be proposed for uniform gold and silver stamping laws of national scope.

The conventon will be held at the Hotel Jefferson auditorium and there will be many magnificent displays of goods manufactured for the jewelry trade. Many prominent speakers are on the programme. The session will continue three days.

MORE GERMS THAN ICE CREAM.

55,000,000 Bacteria in Half Spoonful, Says Boston Official.

Boston, July 25.—Announcement that 55,000,000 bacteria had been found in a half spoonful of ice cream by the Boston health authorities caused the declaration today by Prof. Jas. O. Jordan, of the Board of Health, that he would ask the Legislature to pass an emergency measure providing that the frozen delicacy must hereafter be sold and served only in original packages.

WILEY TO REMAIN PURE FOOD CHIEF

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson Against Dismissal in Report to Taft.

NEED HIS VALUABLE SERVICES

Recommended That Chemistry Chief be Admonished for His Actions. Taft Can Now Act Without Embarrassment.

Washington, D. C., July 26.—It became known here late today that Secretary of Agriculture Wilson in a report to President Taft had recommended that Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the pure food expert, be admonished, but not dismissed. Secretary Wilson, it is understood declares leniency must be shown Dr. Wiley because of his valued services to the government in the past and his usefulness for the future. For this reason, he apparently does not believe that "condign punishment" should be meted out in the case.

Under the recommendation the President will be able to retain Dr. Wiley in his position, as it has been believed all the time he would do, without seeming to ignore the advice of his Attorney General. Thus an embarrassing situation will be avoided.

Secretary Wilson declines to discuss the nature of his report before the President sees fit to make it public. What little he has had to say has indicated that he had not advised "turning down" flatly the recommendation of his department personnel committee and Attorney General Wickersham that the pure food champion be allowed to resign.

DR. HARVEY W. WILEY.
Chief of Bureau of Chemistry.

From what was learned today, it appears that the secretary upholds the charge of the committee that Dr. Wiley committed a grave error and violated the law, but suggests that in view of the doctor's splendid work in the past and his value to the department he should be admonished and retained in the service. There has been no intimation as to when President Taft will announce his decision and make public the papers in the case.

The personnel committee charged Dr. Wiley with permitting an agreement to be made with Dr. H. H. Rusby, of Columbia University, New York, a noted pharmacognosis, for compensation in excess of the maximum allowed by law.

Since this became known protest against the proposed dismissal of Dr. Wiley have been pouring in from all parts of the country. It was charged that interests whose activities have been interfered with by the pure food champion sought this means to get rid of him.

An investigation of the case has been ordered by the House and will begin soon, whatever may be the final decision of the President.

C. & O. AND SHOP EMPLOYES

Amicable Adjustment of Differences Are Announced.

Richmond, Va., July 26.—It is announced that an amicable adjustment of the differences between the shop employes of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway and the officials of the road has been reached. The railway offers the men an increase in pay of two cents an hour and the committee representing the men will recommend acceptance of the offer. The shop men asked an increase of five cents an hour, but it is believed they will adopt the recommendation of their committee in view of all existing circumstances.

COLORED PYTHIANS DEPOSED

Shortage of Two Officers Discovered at Meeting.

Durham, N. C., July 26. — Grand Chancellor Fitts, of the colored North Carolina Pythians, and Grand Master of the Exechequer Miller, were deposed in the Grand Lodge election here today, Fitts being charged with an $8,000 shortage and Miller with misappropriating $2,000.

The shortage was discovered yesterday by State Insurance Commissioner Young, who asked that the officers be put out and new ones elected.

ENSIGN ROBERT YOUNG FOUND

Missing Concord Naval Officer Located in New York, After Long Search —Father Brings Him to Morganton.

Charlotte, N. C., July 26.—Ensign Robert S. Young, Jr., of Concord, N. C., who disappeared from his ship, the torpedo boat destroyer Perkins, in New York, recently, arrived at Morganton on a midnight train last night, accompanied by his father, Dr. Young. He was immediately taken to Broad Oaks Sanitarium. The arrival was very carefully planned and news of Young's presence did not become known generally until this afternoon.

He appeared to be in perfect health, but beyond the statement that he would remain at the institution long enough to have a complete rest, no information was given out.

It is said that the missing ensign was discovered by his father in New York several days ago and had been kept quietly in a hotel there until arrangements could be made to take him to Morganton.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES.

Chicago Lawyer, Brother to Assistant Attorney General, Involved.

Washington, July 26.—The sensational charge was made before the House Committee investigating the Postoffice Department today that Leonard Goodwin, a Chicago lawyer and brother of Russell P. Goodwin, assistant attorney general for the Postoffice Department, was exploiting mail order houses throughout the country, telling them he could arrange any trouble they might have through a denial of mail privileges, etc.

The charge was made by E. G. Lewis, president of a publishing company in St. Louis, recently denied the second class mail privilege. Lewis also declared that postoffice inspectors at St. Louis had been told to use whatever methods they pleased to "put Lewis out of business," and to shut Lewis up before the next campaign. This was the campaign of 1908.

Lewis said a Rochester, N. Y., man had written to him that Goodwin was the man he ought to employ to get him out of his troubles with the postoffice inspectors.

"This man later told me," said Lewis, "that Goodwin himself wrote the letter." Lewis testified that he employed Pinkerton detectives who went to Goodwin's office, representing themselves as in patent medicine mail order business and in trouble with the postoffice officials. An affidavit was presented, sworn to by these detectives, in which they declared that Goodwin told them he had handled thousands of cases like this and that he could fix it so they would not be tothered by postoffice inspectors. He told them, the detectives swore, that all they would have to do would be to say to the inspectors: "Gentlemen, we may have done wrong in the past, but we are trying to live up to the laws," and this Goodwin said would be all that was necessary.

One of the detectives told Lewis, so the latter testified, that postoffice officials and inspectors at St. Louis had told him they would be upheld by the department in whatever methods they used to put Lewis out of business.

Mr. Lewis accused the Postoffice Department of having sent out thousands of copies of the speech delivered by Senator Burton in response to that of Senator Jeff Davis, of Arkansas, attacking the department for its action in the Lewis case.

Mr. Lewis said that he had learned that many persons who wrote to the department requesting a copy of the Davis speech were sent instead o copy of the Burton speech.

CABINET MEMBER GIVES TESTIMONY

IMPORTANT FACTS RELATED

Spoke With Reference to Report of Bonaparte, Declaring Harvester Company Operating in Restraint of Trade.

Washington, July 26.—Attorney General Wickersham appeared before the Stanley "Steel Trust" Investigating Committee today to tell what he knew concerning a report made to former Attorney General Bonaparte by Burdette Townsend, a special agent of the department in 1908, in which the latter urged that the International Harvester Company had operated in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

The attorney general, when shown a copy of the voluminous document by Representative Stanley, said he never had seen it before, though since he had been head of the Department of Justic he had heard rumors that there had been an investigation of the Harvester combine.

Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, former assistant to the Attorney General, summoned before the committee for the same purpose, said he had advised further investigation before any prosecution was undertaken under the report.

Commissioner Herbert Knox Smith, of the Bureau of Corporations, which is now investigating the International Harvester Company, also had heard of the report.

The matter was injected into the steel inquiry because the report charges that the steel corporation pays a rebate of $3 a ton to harvester companies on steel purchased and because the committee has information that there is an arrangement between the two giant corporations whereby the harvester companies buy exclusively from the Steel Corporation.

The Commissioner of Corporations was required to intercede with the President on behalf of the committee to see if information regarding the relations of the two corporations at present in the hands of the bureau could not be placed at the committee's disposal. Richmond Lindabury, counsel for the United States Steel Corporation, offered to furnish all the information of the records of his corporation bearing on the points at issue.

Despite protests from the Steel Corporation counsel that the International Harvester line of inquiry was part from the inquiry directed by Congress, Chairman Stanley insisted that it was essential and he reported he had information tending to show that the harvester and steel corporations were practically the same. Attorney General Wickersham agreed to have Mr. Townsend, who is still in the service of the Department, appear before the committee at a later date.

"We will have Mr. Carnegie before us in October," said Mr. Stanley, "and perhaps you could arrange to have Mr. Townsend here about that time."

The Attorney General said it would be possible to do so.

"Do you know of any reason," Chairman Stanley asked, "why this harvester company investigation was not acted upon by the Department of Justice prior to the time you assumed charge of the department?"

"I do not know," Mr. Wickersham replied, "I surmise—this is only a surmise—that the case was delayed pending a decision by the Supreme Court in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases. It was not considered desirable to press these cases until a decision of the Supreme Court was received and in this case, I think many of the same points were involved."

Chairman Stanley announced that a subpoena had been issued for Mr. Bonaparte, who is now in Canada to ascertain from him why the International Harvester Company was not prosecuted upon Townsend's charges.

Mr. Townsend, in his report, states that the International Harvester Company was organized in 1902, the transaction being directed and guided by J. Pierpont Morgan & Company. The report stated that the McCormick Harvester Company was "related by marriage to the great American family of trusts," the Standard Oil Company.

It also referred to J. Pierpont Morgan as "the trust architect, a good builder who received fabulous fees for his work."

The report particularly referred to the price paid to J. Pierpont Morgan & Company, in the harvester deal, declaring that $5,000,000 is a very high price for the simple service of suggesting to people how they can agree in a legitimate transaction. "It is not unusual," he said, "in illegal transactions, such as creating a trust, which can evade the laws. Doubtless, if proceedings were instituted against the International Harvester Company, the manner of its defense will demonstrate that the fee was earned."

WARM TIME AT LORIMER PROBE

Washington, July 26.—The cross examination of James Keeley, general manager and editor of the Chicago Tribune, was completed today before the Senator Lorimer Committee. Not since the beginning of the investigation has a witness been put through the gruelling examination that Mr. Keeley experienced at the hands of Eldridge Haneey, counsel for Mr. Lorimer. Time after time the editor let the sarcastic remarks of the attorney pass with nothing more than a shrug of the shoulders, but at others, he countered and retaliated. Throughout the day, the object of the attorney appeared to be to establish if possible an ancient grudge of the Tribune against Lorimer.

The committee, after the cross examination, asked the witness just two questions. One was whether the editor believed the story of State Representative Charles A. White, whose alleged confession of graft in the Illinois Legislature was first printed by the Tribune.

"I did and do," was the answer.

The other question was directed at what Mr. Keeley had in mind when he said yesterday he had about changed his conclusion about having been swindled when he paid George Glavis $600 for books that Glavis claimed showed that Lorimer when in the House, received money from lobbyists in Washington, in a fight made by the "fire proof" magazine of Chicago, for the mail privilege. He had not gotten an opportunity to explain on cross examination.

In this connection Mr. Keeley also said yesterday that Glavis told him ex-Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, was "mixed up in the deal."

"When I came to Washington a few days ago," Mr. Keeley replied, "Mr. Green, attorney for Glavis, came to me and said that if I would ask the district attorney to be easy on Glavis he would tell me where the book was. The trunk full of books had dwindled to a memorandum book. Mr. Green said that the book was in existence and that he knew who had it.

"I told him I could not be a party to such an arrangement and that the proper person for him to see was the district attorney. He said he would see his client and call on me again, but he has not done so. He added that a search warrant would be necessary to get the book."

One of the points dwelt upon by Attorney Hanecy in his cross examination was the reputed criticism in the Tribune editorials of senators who voted for Lorimer in the recent fight over his seat in the Senate. Mr. Keeley said he had no recollection of such editorials.

Mr. Hanecy thereupon read several editorials, the first was entitled "Don't Crowd Mr. Burrows," and described the chairman of the first Lorimer committee as "picking nose gays."

Another editorial printed after the vote on the Lorimer case said that if four more senators had voted their honest convictions on the Lorimer case, Lorimer would have been unseated.

"What four did you have in mind?"

"Not four. The vote was 46 to 40. Four from 46 is 42 and four added to 40 makes 44."

"Did you have any knowledge of any senator casting the dishonest or corrupt vote on the Lorimer case?" asked Senator Jones.

"Of course, not. The editorial was a mere arithmetic figure of speech."

"It is probable that heads of big stock yards companies at Chicago will be called as witnesses to explain the use of "Lard" (money) in the Lorimer election. Witness Keeley said representatives of the Armour, Swift, Morris and other concerns might enlighten the committee.

St. Paul, Minn., July 26.—Declaring that he desired to have entered on record with the Senate Lorimer Investigating Committee his "most solemn and emphatic denial of ever having had any connection, either direct or indirect, with the 'fire proof magazine' of Chicago, or any other publication seeking mail or any other privilege either from the Postoffice Department or from Congress", former Representative James A. Tawney today, after reading the testimony of James Keeley, of Chicago, yesterday before the Lorimer Investigating Committee, sent a telegram to Chairman Dillingham, of the Lorimer Committee, asking to be summoned before the committee to deny the charges. In his telegram Mr. Tawney declared that "I want to deny that I have been connected either directly or indirectly with any firm of lobbyists or other representatives of said magazine or other publications or of any other interest seeking such mail or any other privilege from the government." He added that the records of the third assistant postmaster general would corroborate his statement.

UNITED AGAINST GERMANY.

Last Ditch Fighters Ready to Close Up Ranks, It Would Appear.

London, July 26.—Threatening foreign complications are to some extent drawing attention from the constitutional crisis and a greater disposition was shown today by some of the last-ditch fighters to close up the ranks in the face of what is regarded here as German aggression.

There seems to be no doubt that King George and the government have appealed to the leaders of the opposition to do everything possible to avoid further internal disruption so that the government may have the general support of all parties in dealing with the Moroccan tangle.

TAFT MAKES REPLY ON ALASKA AFFAIR

SENDS MESSAGE TO SENATE

Tells of Settlement and Development of Forest Reserve—Also Discusses the "Dick-to-Dick" Letter — Features.

Washington, D. C., July 26th.—President Taft sent a special message to the Senate today shouldering full responsibility for opening for settlement and development 12,800 acres of the Chugach National Forest Reserve in Alaska,—and incident which has become to be known as the "Controller Bay Affair." In concluding he brands the now famous "Dick to Dick" postscript as a "wicked fabrication" and says that Charles P. Taft, whose name appeared in the alleged postscript, "has no interest in Alaska, never had, and knows nothing of the circumstances connected with this transection." Moreover, the President adds, his brother does not even remember that he ever met Richard S. Ryan, representing the Controller Railway & Navigation Company.

As for elinimating the land in question from the reserve, the President says that there is no danger of the Controller Railway & Navigation Company or any other interests monopolizing the field, and nothing to show that this company is in any way connected with the Morgan-Guggenheim interests. Hence, he believes that in eliminating the land he has acted for the best interests of the nation.

"I wish to be as specific as possible upon this point," says the President in his message, "and to say that I alone am responsible for the enlargement of the proposed elimination from 320 acres to 12,800 acres, and that I ppoposed the change and stated my reasons therefor. The thing which the Territory of Alaska needs is development, and where rights and franchises can be properly granted to encourage investment and construct a railroad without conferring exclusive privileges, I believe it to be in accordance with good policy to grant them."

Accompanying the President's message are documents, reports and maps bearing on the case, as requested from him by a Senate resolution of June 27th last. "I deem it wise," says the message, "to accompanying the submission of these documents with a statement in narrative form of the action of the administration with the reasons therefor." Here follows a description of Controller Bay and environs and a map showing the effect of withdrawing the much mooted 12,800 acres from the reserve. The President then takes up the thread of his narrative as concerns the events that precipitated the controversy.

He relates how Ryan, representing the Controller Railway & Navigation Company, applied in 1909 for the elimination of a tract to enable this company to secure railroad terminals, etc. The application was referred to the Forestry Bureau and then to the Navy Department with a view that perhaps the Navy desired to use Controller Bay as a reservation. The forestry interests found no objection to the elimination of the tract indicated, "or indeed," as the President writes, "to the elimination of 18,000 acres in the northwest shore of Controller Bay."

The Navy Department's answer was "negative" says the President, and after the matter had been considered by the Secretary of Agriculture, by the Secretary of the Interiar and the General Land Office, a recommendation was made to him that 320 acres with a frontage of 160 rods on the northwest shore of Controller Bay be thrown open. A formal order to this effect was finally submitted to him in October, 1910, but when the matter came before the cabinet late in that month he found objection to it. His reasons for taking this stand, he explains in his message in part as follows:

"I expressed dissatisfaction with the order because it purported on its face to make the elimination for the benefit of a railroad company of a tract of land which the company could not by lawful entry secure, for it was a tract 320 acres in one body when only 160 acres could thus be acquired. In the second place, I preferred to make a much larger elimination of a tract facing the entire channel, and with sufficient room for a terminal railway town. I was willing to do this because I found the restrictions in the law sufficient to prevent the possibility of any monopoly of either the upland or the harbor or channel by the Controller Railway & Navigation Company or any other persons or company. Because of a lack of time sufficient to draft a memorandum myself, I requested the Secretary of the Interior, who, with the Secretary of Agriculture, after full discussion, had agreed in my conclusion, to prepare a letter setting forth the reasons for making the larger elimination, so that it might become a part of the record.

"I wish to be as specific as possible upon this point, and to say that I alone am responsible for the enlargement of the proposed elimination from 320 acres to 12,800 acres, and that I proposed the change and stated my Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough. I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything, I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." REWARD FOR SWINDLERS

Two Frenchmen Who Have Been Preying Upon Steel Importers.

New York, July 26.—An offer of $5,000 reward will be sent broadcast over the country tomorrow by the Swedish Iron & Steel Company of New York and New Orleans, for evidence that will convict two or more alleged swindlers of a fraud by which it is charged $500,000 has already been cleared up and which is still flourishing.

For seven years the swindlers—known to the trade as the "two French swindlers"—have been preying upon steel importers, the body of men who annually bring into the country goods valued at $25,000,000 to such an extent that salesmen handling imported steels now report that they have difficulty in pursuading customers that they are honest men representing reputable firms.

The victims chosen have been always of first financial rating. They include business concerns of all kinds in New England, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Indianapolis, Brooklyn, N. Y., Buffalo, Lansing, Detroit and Grand Rapids. In essence the swindle was this:

"The two Frenchmen" representing themselves as count so and so and his secretary would visit a factory office, pick their way through the shops, compliment the superintendent on his progressiveness and then solicit sample orders for high-class tool steel made abroad by the count's father. While the "count" engaged the superintendent his secretary would dictate on the firm's stationery an order for a much larger amount and walk out with a perfunctory signature. The order would be turned over to supposedly innocent jobbers who would deliver inferior quality of steel, worth perhaps three cent a pound and collect from 39 to 90 cents a pound. Usually the manufacturer would pay rather than fight in court a transaction that appeared bonafide.

The Frenchmen began operations seven years ago but two years ago found it was getting too hot for them. They vanished but the game was too good to let die. It had never brought a prosecution or even exposure, and now evidence is rapidly accummulating that it is being inaustriously pushed again, either by the two Frenchmen or close students of their methods.

Originally the swindlers represented themselves as agents of an unknown foreign company. Now, however, they have brought into the game an American company which is determined to protect itself. The result has been a vigorous campaign, which will be pushed to the end.

FIRE IN GREENSBORO

Three-Story Apartment House Burned —Other Notes.

Greensboro, N. C., July 26.—A large three-story apartment flt on Davie street belonging to Mr. John W. King, was practically ruined by fire at noon today. The building is closely surrounded by other dwellings and it looked exceedingly dangerous for the whole block as the fire was in full swing when the alarm was given. By heroic work the fire companies soon had the flames under control. The building was insured for $6,000 and the damage is fully covered.

Ex-Judge George P. Pell, brother to Mrs. J. B. Gunter, of this city, who was in such critical condition in a hospital in Baltimore a week ago, has sufficiently recovered to go to his home in Winston-Salem.

VOLCANO DEFEATS CUSTOMS.

Bongo Refines Sulphur by Great Heat and Beats Hail Splitters.

Washington, July 26.—Bongo, a volcano in Japan, is defrauding the United States out of duties on raw sulphur every day in the year. Customs officials, after a long wrestle with Bongo's case, have decided they can not do anything about it.

Raw sulphur, as most every one knows, comes from the crater of a volcano. It is free of duty. Refined sulphur pays $4 a ton. But Bongo's crater is so hot that it refines the sulphur as fast as it makes it.

The shrewd gentlemen who own Bongo steadfastly refuse to pay duty on the sulphur and the Treasury Department knows of no way to make them do so.

WESTERN TENNIS TOURNEY

Several Excellent Matches Yesterday —Chicago Player Wins.

Lake Forest, Ill., July 26.—Several excellent matches were played in a busy day of the Western Tennis tournament. The match in the third round of the men's singles between Hugh C. Whitehead, of Norfolk, Va., and Harry Waidner, Chicago, won by the latter, 6-3, 6-4, was exceptionally interesting. In the men's doubles, second round, Whitehead and Winston, of Norfolk, defeated Hays and Neely, Chicago, 6-1, 9-7, 4-6, 6-1.

MANAGER DOOIN INJURED.

Philadelphia National Player Broke Right Leg Yesterday.

St. Louis, July 26.—Charles Dooin, catcher and manager of the Philadelphia National League baseball team, is in a hospital here with a broken right leg as the result of a collision at the home plate in today's game with St. Louis. Physicians tonight announced that he hardly will be able to play again this season.

In the presence of the manager's downcast team mates tonight, an X-ray photograph of the fracture which is of the right fibula and about four inches above the ankle, was taken. The bone is broken in two.

The accident occurred in the fourth inning while St. Louis was at bat, and was witnessed by 10,000 or more persons. Third Baseman Smith just had been thrown out at the plate on an infield hit. Centerfielder Oakes was on third base and Pitcher Ceyer on first. They tried a double steal and as Shortstop Doolan, of Philadelphia returned the ball to Catcher Dooin, Oakes slid into the plate, striking Dooin with great force. While Umpire O'Day was waving the runner out, Dooin dropped on his face. Players of both teams hurriedly carried the manager to a taxicab which took him to a hospital.

Shortstop Michael Doolan will act as manager while Dooin is absent and Moran and Madden will alternate behind the bat.

This is the third star the Philadelphia team has lost this season in games with St. Louis and the players tonight said Dooin's injury, more than anything else perhaps, might spoil their chances for the pennant.

DEMOCRATS ON WOOL.

Solid Support for Tariff Revision Bill is Assured.

Washington, July 26.—Solid support for the House wool tariff revision bill was pledged in caucus tonight by the Democrats of the Senate. A resolution setting forth their attitude, offered by Senator Culberson, of Texas, was adopted without a dissenting voice.

The discussion was devoted largely, it is understood, to the discovery of some parliamentary method of resuscitating the LaFollette Wool bill if the House measure is voted down. The LaFollette Wool bill will be offered as a substitute for the House measure when a vote on the latter is demanded and it is conceded it will be killed. Then if the House bill meets a similar fate, an effort, it is said, will be made to reconsider the vote on the House bill which, if successful, will be followed promptly by re-offering the LaFollette measure as a substitute, and by a coalition of the insurgent Republicans and Democrats, passing it.

This programme, it was said tonight, is entirely tentative, and dependent on the willingness of Mr. LaFollette to submit to a sharp modification of his masure.

The Underwood wool tariff bill had its first serious consideration in the Senate today, with a vote upon it in prospect for the opening of tomorrow's session. The honors were divided between the two senators from Montana. Senator Myers, the new Democratic member, declared he would vote for the passage of the bill as it came from the House of Representatives.

Senator Dixon, Republican, speaking from behind a desk filled nigh with samples of wool and woolen clothes, expressed the belief that no wool legislation should be passed at this session of Congress, and that the revision, when taken up, should be based on the forthcoming report of the tariff board. Senator Dixon declared there is a real "joker" in the wool tariff, known as the "skirting clause." By permitting importers to discard all the rough parts of the fleece, he said, it reduces the actual protection to American sheep-raisers from 11 cents to 5 cents.

Senator Myers said he was ready to accept the Underwood bill as a fair adjustment of the wool tariff and favored Congress remaining here to vote "on all remedial legislation needed by the people."

He said the interests and trusts want Congress to adjourn. He declared the Senate had accomplished less in the last four months than "a good board of county commissioners could accomplish in a week."

The new cotton tariff revision bill will be considered in the House tomorrow.

FRENCH AVIATOR WINS.

Brooklands, England, July 26.—A. Beaumont (Lieut. De Connean) won the $50,000 prize offered by the London Daily Mail for the circuit of Great Britain aviation race of 1,010 miles. The Frenchman reached the finish here at 2:07 o'clock this afternoon, making a splendid "volplane" from a height of 1,000 feet.

Beaumont and Vedrines, who eltt Bristol at 5 o'clock this morning on the final stage of the circuit of Great Britain aviation race, arrived at Brighton at noon. Beaumont maintained the lead, his aggregate time now being 22 hours, 56 minutes and 55 seconds. They will continue to this place, the point of the start, and finish this afternoon.

The final section of the race covers a distance of 264 miles, the course being laid from Exter to Bristol, 65, to Salisburg 83 miles, to Brighton 76 miles, then to Brooklands 40 miles.

JUDGE CLARK ON STUMP

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 26.—Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, who is in the race for the Senate to succeed Senator Simmons, has gone to Stanley, Gaston county, to deliver an address at the 27th annual Masonic gathering there.

Friends of the chief justice are much gratified at the action of the United States Senate some days ago in ordering that the noted speech of Judge Clark delivered in Philadelphia on the constitution of the United States be printed as a public document for the use of Congress. They boast that this is the second time that a compliment of this sort has been paid to the chief justice, the former one being when the Senate ordered the printing of Clark's speech on the Telegraph an Essential Part of the United States Postoffice Department. This was eighteen years ago.

The Farmers' Institute party that is to hold the institute at points reached by the Seaboard Air Line, reached out today and will spend the month of August in this work. All the other five parties are also starting out this week and all over North Carolina during the next five weeks there will be held institutes for farmers and for farmer's wives and daughters. In the Seaboard party theer are T. J. W. Broome, Dr. G. A. Roberts, E. L. Worthen, Miss Minnie L. Jamison and Miss Lucy T. Webb.

A number of special proceedings for the condemnation of rights of way for the electric current transmission lines throught this section for the current to be brought from Blewitts Falls pwer plant for the Carolina Power and Light Co., have been started in the Superior Court here before the clerk. These are cases in which the representatives of the company and the land owners have failed to reach a satisfactory agreement. In most cases the rights of way have been satisfactorily adjusted. It is an interesting fact that in one of the proceedings a certain young lawyer here represents the electric company in the institution of the suit and in another case this same lawyer represents the land owner and will appear against the company.

E. A. Smith, of Charlotte, president of The Chadwick-Hoskins Manufacturing Co., Charlotte, was here today conferring with the Corporation Commission as to the capital stock assessment against his corporation. The commission is now well advanced in the work of fixing assessments against the cotton mills, having completed the railroad assessments some days ago. The railroad figures are being withheld from publication pending some slight adjustments as to the Seaboard Air Line and Southern.

BEATTIE CASE IN RICHMOND

Beulah Binford Again Interviewed by the Detectives.

Richmond, Va., July 26.—Another long interview between detectives and Beulah Binford, the woman in the Beattie murder case, took place in the Henrico jail today. The girl talked with great freedom of her relations with Henry Beattie, Jr., and while not giving the officers any testimony upon which a new line of investigation might be pursued, disclosed many details which are said to strenghten the web being wound around Beattie.

None of the detectives believe that Beulah had anything whatever to do with the murder, though she would have profited by the death of Mrs. Beattie, had Beattie not been suspected.

After the interview with Miss Binford the detectives had a short talk with Paul Beattie, who remained unshaken in the statement that he bought the shot gun for his cousin at the latter's request and turned the gun, with three cartridges, over to him.

Judge R. Carter Scott, of the Henrico Circuit Court, entered vigorous objection today to any "sweat box" proceedings at the Henrico jail and it is possible that Beulah will be removed to the Chesterfield county jail.

HAPPY RESULTS

Have Made Many Wilmington Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Wilmington citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Wilmington by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. J. D. Sellars, of Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am feeling like a different person since using Doan's Kidney Pills. Some time ago I procured a box of this remedy at Robt. R. Bellamy's drug store, as it was highly recommended for kidney trouble from which I had been suffering for a long time. My back ached constantly, my eyes pained me and when I would lay down, dark spots floated before me. My kidneys were weak and I had a constant desire to pass the secretions. The contents of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills corrected all these troubles and toned up my system."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

HAPPENINGS AT WHITEVILLE

Trouble With Negro Employes—Marlow and Grainger Trial in Columbus Superior Court—Other News of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 26.—A correspondent from Easy, a town on the line of the new railroad, the Whiteville Lumber Company is building to Reaves' Ferry, says since the shooting into their hands, the company has armed its negro employes with Winchester rifles and told them to resist any attack made upon them. The whites in that section are indignant over this story.

On Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of Mr. Pink Butler, Mr. Walter Cox, of Guide, and Miss Bessie Patterson, of Georgia, were married. Mr. Cox is well known in Wilmington, being connected with the Kimball Organ Co. Miss Bessie is the daughter of Mr. Ashley Patterson, of Thomasville, Ga., a former citizen of Loris, S. C. On the 26th of June Mr. Cox was at Tabor and saw the young lady get off the train with whom he at once fell in love. This was the first time he saw her. A courtship followed and which ended in their marriage.

Mrs. N. M. Alford and son are visiting in Wilmington.——Miss Sarah Burkhead has returned to Whiteville after a pleasant visit to Atlantic City, New York and Washington.——Mr. Lee FormyDuval called in Dr. Smith, of Bolton, to treat his little son who is critically ill.

The trial of the case against Missie Marlow and Robert Granger, charged with killing Bud Nobles at Grists, is still in progress and will consume the greater part of the week. The court room is full all the time. The defense has concluded its testimony and yesterday Missie Marlow was put upon the stand and subjected to a rigid examination. She was followed by Robert Granger. The testimony of the two exactly tallied.

Missie Marlowe was neatly dressed in a blue skirt and white waist and wore a "pretty bonnet with a flower garden on it." She made her statement in a very deliberate manner, and seemed cool and collected. She punctuated her testimony with such exclamations as, "He sure did," or "Sure didn't." She stood the cross examination well, but her eyes flashed with indigation when the counsel for the State probed her too deeply. She is a very pretty young woman with rosy cheeks, and has not a bad face.

Robert Granger is a young man apparently some 21 years of age. He was clean shaven, had black hair and eyes, and dressed in black.

The general line of the testimony was such as already published in the Star, with slight variations. The following is the statement of Missie Marlowe, and which is the most important:

"I am 19 years old; was born and raised in South Carolina. Knew Bud Nobles; was my first cousin; knew him all my life. I had nothing to do with the killing of Bud Nobles, though I know all about it. Bud Nobles came to Grists and on to an old road, and asked us to go home with him. We went on almost to an old colored man's house and Mac Tyce said, "Let's stop and take a drink of whiskey." Robert Granger said, "I don't want any, but will stop and let you drink." We stopp the mule and Mac Tyce got out and took gun out of the buggy. He told Granger to get a quart of whiskey out. Mac Tyce took a drink, when we went on onther side of the colored man's house. The colored man said for us not to kick up any fuss in front of his house. Robert Granger told him they hadn't done anything and to attend to his own business. The negro followed us and Granger asked him what he meant by it? He denied following up. He refused to go back and Granger said: "I'll give you something to go back for." He hit the man one lick and the negro kept on calling him a liar. Robert then hit him two more licks. Mrs. Hammons came up, and Robert was walking ahead of mule in road. I got out of buggy and we went off and left negro and Mrs. Hammons. Went down toward Smith's store and saw Wiley Hammons, John Hinson, and Bud Nobles coming. Wiley Hammons hollered, "Hold on there, you—rascals! What's so much trouble about?" I told Robert to listen at those people cursing them. We then turned down a log road, went down Hammons street, and stopping the mule turned its head out in the woods. I looked back and they were hitting Mac Tyce. I saw them dragging him out of the buggy. I said, "Let's go and leave Mac Tyce." We started up a little foot path to go into the Mt. Tabor road to go home. We were walking fast as we could, not to be running. As soon as they saw we were leaving they left Mac Tyce, and when Robert saw he could not get by them he stopped. Robert Hammons said, "You are the ——— we want." Robert said, "Folks, I ain't done anything to you." Wiley Hammons and John Hinson were coming first, Bud Nobles back of them. Robert Granger hit John Hammons with his gun, and before he could hit Bud Nobles, Bud had him by the arms and John Hinson had a knife and cut him twice. I said for the Lord's sake don't kill him. After a little fussing and cursing I went almost up to them. They shoved Robert down, and he told them if they didn't get off him he would hurt somebody.

He then raised up on his elbow and we then left. Hammons told Hinson to get a gun and finish the —— rascal. Robert then shot down the road to scare them. Met Buck Tyler on road home. He saw the torn shirt and asked him about it. Robert asked him to see how bad he was cut. Mack Tyson came in and told him that he didn't expect to see him there.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

Depository at Washington, N. C.—Elks' Lodge—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., July 26.—The local postoffice has been named as a postal savings oank and government depository and will begin business next Saturday. Deposits will be limited to $100 monthly, and not more than $500 can be on deposit in the postal bank to the credit of one person at a time. The money that the postoffice receives from depositors is by them deposited in the local banks, and the banks pay the government 2 1-2 per cent. interest, and the postoffice will pay depositors at the rate of two per cent. interest on the deposits that it receives.

At a meeting of a committee of stockholders in the Washington Tobacco Warehouse it was decided to open this warehouse for the Fall business about September 1st. This warehouse was built last year by a stock company and was operated during its first season very profitably and it is hoped that the coming season will surpasse the former one in the sales of tobacco on its floors. Epecial inducements, it is understood, will be made by the company to attract tobacco growers from all over this section, and give them good prices if they will market their tobacco in this city.

Following the custom instituted by a large number of Elk Lodges all over the State the local lodge of B. P. O. E., have decided to set apart each Thursday in the week for Ladies' Day. On this day the club rooms will be thrown open to the wives, sisters and mothers of the members and they will be allowed to enjoy all the privileges of the club.

CUMBERLAND DRAINAGE.

Twenty-two Thousand Acres to be Reclaimed—Delegation Calls.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 26.—Congressman H. L. Godwin was at the Agricultural Department today accompanied by a delegation of prominent citizens from Fayetteville conferring with the Chief of Office of Drainage in reference to a drainage district in Cumberland county. In the party were R. H. Buckingham, A. L. McCaskill, Fred Crews, W. S. Cook, Chas. Haigh and Louis Hale. The matter was gone over thoroughly and the drainage office promised to undertake the work by September 1st. This is a very large district and the opening up of the swamp lands there will mean a great deal for that section of the State. The district is nine miles long and six miles wide. It is estimated that 22,000 acres of very valuable land will be rendered fit for agricultural purposes. Mr. Godwin told the Chief of the Drainage Office that crops valued at from $500,000 to $1,000,000 could be raised annually in this district, when drained and improved. The work will begin by September 1st.

A camping party of engineers, including services of rodmen, axemen, teams and teamsters, cooks, etc., will be used. About two months will be required to complete the survey. The completion of this important work will serve as an object lesson and as a demonstration to many interested in drainage. Mr. Godwin said that other districts were being organized.

BANK OF KENLY.

Shortage Made Good and New Cashier Is Elected.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Kenly, July 25.—The stockholders of the Bank of Kenly met today and the shortage caused by the defalcation of R. H. Alford was made good and the bank will continue business as before. Mr. J. H. Kirby, in whom everybody has implicit confidence, was uanimously elected cashier.

The people have not lost confidence in the bank, as certain parties offered to pay back value for the stock, and only a few shares changed hands. Mr. Franklin McNeil, chairman of the Corporation Commission and Assistant Bank Examiner C. V. Brown, were present to protect the interests of the depositors, and they express themselves as being gratified at the condition.

CHARLOTTE WATER SUPPLY

May Have To Resort to Hauling It From Catawba River.

Charlotte, July 25.—An extremely critical stage in the Charlotte water situation has arrived and it may become necessary within the next few days, to resort to hauling water from the Catawba river in tank cars, as the city's requirements could not be met by ordinary supply. Revervoir supply in stand pipe has been drawn on for three hundred thousand gallons.

Unless consumption of water is cut down, it is stated by the water superintendent that the supply will have to be shut off for several hours each day.

GREEK KILLED FROM AMBUSH.

Virginia Negroes Attack Construction Camp Gang.

Roanoke, Va., July 25.—Fifteen Greeks and Austrians were held up yesterday near Bandy, Tazewell county, by negroes in ambush and Michael Ugowych was instantly killed by shots fired by the blocks, Ugowych was the foreman of a construction camp on Dry Fork, and it is said he had incurred the enmity of the negroes.

The rest of the foreigners escaped. The body was riddled with bullets and badly bruised with sticks and stones. There have been no arrests.

Spencer, N. C., July 26.—Hoke Kester, a prominent farmer, in attempting to throw a belt had one arm caught in a wheat threshing machine today and literally twisted off. He will recover.

NEGRO PYTHIANS ARE IN BAD

Commissioner of Insurance Finds Discrepances in Accounts—Carolina Metal Products Company—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 26.—The accounts of the officers of the negro North Carolina Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias were checked up recently by State Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young, and found to be over $4,000 short. There should have been on hand $12,000 and only $8,000 was shown to be in hand.

The Commissioner sent a communication to the Grand Lodge in session at Durham at this time to the effect that the Grand Lodge must elect new officers and change the methods of keeping and accounting for funds. The Grand Lodge officers were J. S. Fitz, Winston-Salem, Grand Chancellor; R. W. Brown, Winston-Salem, Grand Secretary, and E. D. Miller, Reidsville, Grand Treasurer. The Grand Lodge last night re-elected Fitz Grand Chancellor and elected new men for the other two positions. However, Commissioner Young telephoned the Grand Lodge today that Fitz must also be deposed as Grand Chancellor as he would not stand for the retention of any or either of the three in office. The commissioner says the three officers were bonded and that the shortages will be made good. It seems that all three of the officers received monies for various funds so that the shortage cannot be fixed wholly on either of the three.

The Carolina Metal Products Co., of Wilmington, is chartered with $150,000 capital authorized for building culverts and for other purposes. The incorporators are Tho. G. Empie, J. H. Kuck, J. P. Council, J. W. Murchison, S. M. Boatwright and others. There are also charters for The Brown Co. (Incorporated) Asheville, for timber and mining purposes, capital $5,000 subscribed and $50,000 authorized. W. Vance Brown principal incorporator; The Norwood Spicer Co., Goldsboro, capital $25,000, Norwood Spicer and others for exploiting trademarks, patents and for other purposes, and The Grand United Order of Brothers and Sisters' Grand Union, Lumberton, Robeson county, for fraternal benefit purposes. Jomes F. Stedman, of Pembroke, principal incorporator.

In connection with the annual session of the Literary and Historical Association of North Caroilna here this Fall, Secretary Clarence H. Poe announces that there will be an evening session of the association Monday, November ..th, at which there will be the president's address by Prof. Graham and the address by Dr. C. Alphonse Smith and the presentation of the Patterson cup. A business meeting of the association will be held on Tuesday afternoon, November 28th and on Tuesday evening there will be the address by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, and an address by Josephus Daniels, on "The Influence of Nathaniel Macon on North Carolina History." These will be followed on the same evening by a reception tendered to the members of the association by ex-Judge R. W. Winston at the splendid Winston home on Blount street.

TRAGEDY AT BLEWETTS FALLS.

One Negro Shoots Another With Shot Gun At Power Plant.

Wadesboro, N. C., July 26.—Yesterday afternoon at Blewetts Falls, a negro named Tom Burns shot and killed another negro whose name is unknown. Blewetts Falls is a great hydro-electric plant, where the Yadkin Power Company is damming up the Pee Dee river. Many negro laborers are employed there and consequently there are many shootings, etc. It is thought that this shooting occurred at a negro woman's house who is of bad reputation. Burns shot his assailant with a shot gun that was found in the woman's house. He immediately left the works. The coroner's jury is now in session on the case.

The church property of the Wadesboro Baptist church was sold yesterday at public auction, being bid in by Mr. John W. Odom, a real estate dealer, at the price of $6,225. The Baptist church owned nearly a block in the business section of the town, or which the parsonage was located, and it was the only business property in town for sale, at any price.

Owes Health and Happiness

to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, your Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and dragging pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house.

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls to build them up, regulate, and make them well. My eldest daughter has taken the Compound for painful, irregular periods, and it has always helped her.

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to these wonderful medicines."—Mrs. J. G. Johnson, Scottville, Mich., R. F. D. 3.

When shown such positive and reliable proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound really does cure such cases wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering the same?

MORE GENUINE AND CONVINCING PROOF:

Elwood, Ind.—"I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. I tried doctors, and they said I could not get well without an operation. I could hardly stand the pain, but my right side was the worse. I couldn't sleep at night, and I was troubled with a weakness.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle, but I kept on until I was cured."—Mrs. Sadie Mullen, 2728 N. B. Street, Elwood, Ind.

What more proof can any one ask?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Thursday, July 27, 1911.

Be a rooter. Root for something, so you won't get the dry rot.

North Carolina strawberries always did go well with the cream of society.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who wore home-made lindsey clothes and was known by his neighbors as a man who could skin a flea for its hide and tallow?

Envy, jealousy, hatred, malice, and the desire to splurge on 30 cents, constitute some of the causes of what is happening every day all over the country.

When Senator Heyburn got "rampageous," Senator John Sharp Williams got up and left the Senate Chamber. Of course, Counsin John hated to stay and see a fellow Senator make a fool of himself.

Mr. Jno. D. Rockefeller, for whom we still retain a great deal of respect in spite of all that has been said, says he owes to his wife everything he is worth. That's "perfectly all right," but will he please state why she doesn't collect what he says he owes her?

One thing about a politician is that he will spring all sorts of things to beat the other fellow. A statesman runs on his own nook, flings his own banner to the breeze and is never caught scaling a molehill to pull down some other fellow's flag.

In the early Christian era it was considered a sin to wear a wig or false hair. Owing to the increase of bald heads, and to the fact that the ladies haven't got all the hair they want, that idea has steadily piled a large majority against it.

Says the Charleston Post: "A New York woman, five times married, has been giving advice on picking husbands. They should not be picked green, at least." We rather suspect the lady is better qualified for giving advice on how to pluck a husband.

Different cities are claiming that during what was alleged to have been the hot wave, they were the coolest places in the country. People who live in or around Wilmington will be astonished to learn that there has been a hot wave like anything they say they have been having elsewhere

Boston papers acknowledged that the feet of the women of that city are growing larger. We are satisfied, however, that Boston women will continue going in a store, buying two's on a "b" last, and then send them back and exchange for 5's. Of course, our lady friends of Boston are just like all others.

A Chicago financier consulted a medium, got a spiritualistic tip on an investment, and lost a clean $1,000,000 on the deal. Probably he got in touch with the spirit of Dives, or some other malefactor of great wealth, who happened to be using his "influence" for some friend on the other side of the market. Of course, some people will blame it on the medium, not knowing that she has no guarantee that she is not under control of the spirit of Greed. For the benefit of inquiring friends we will state that old Greed, like Banquo's ghost, "will never down," and whose spirit never missed an opportunity to materialize in a living mortal who is overly anxious to get rick quick. Wise people can recognize the spirit of Greed by its long, bony fingers and unmistakable signs indicating that it would like to have a finger in the pie. Since Greed is no friend of ours, we have never gone into pining when it got its fingers burnt. We fully expect to have good luck by exposing the evil spirits.

DEMOCRATS AND TARIFF MAKING

The Washington dispatches announce, that since the battle over Canadian reciprocity has been fought to the finish and the field cleared, the Democrats are now launching out upon "tariff revision."

To state the matter plainly, a Democratic House is now undertaking to enter upon the vital and actual work of tariff making, and it may as well be stated that the time for constructive statesmanship has arrived. The Jeffersonian party, in the words of Grover Cleveland, is now facing a condition and not a theory, and the trustworthiness of the party depends upon meeting that condition without doing any great violence to theory, of which some have made a fetish.

The condition which the House Democrats face is that of raising more than one thousand million dollars to defray the expenses of the government, and to do that it has to go to figuring instead of theorizing. Its success will surely depend on figuring how to raise a revenue by levying tariff duties that will bear equally and equitably upon all sections of the American Republic. Of course, the government expenses have to be raised by a tariff tax and it falls to the duty of the Democrats to see that no one section shall bear the most of the burden by having to pay taxes that may be levied regardless of some idea of distributing them in an equitable manner.

We see it sticking out right now that some sections, in one of which North Carolina is situated, will have to be carefully looked after, since more attention is paid to theory than any condition that is sure to arise. For instance, the idea is largely prevalent that North Carolina likes the free list and is perfectly willing to pay taxes for the government, raised on a tariff levied on what other States produce. Since the other States have no earthly objection to such an arrangement, it becomes necessary for us to depend on the statesmen at Washington to be so constructive as to see that North Carolina does not get hopelessly in the theoretical soup. Of course, if North Carolina won't take care of herself, this can be considered as a direct appeal to Democratic statesmen at Washington to give her at least the hock end of a square deal, not based on hasty adhesion to the theoretical end of the question but on the conditions as they are to be met in the big road face to face.

We have had up at Washington, and yet have there, a Congressional delegation which almost unanimously saw the point and acted for North Carolina's best interests, but if they should happen not to be returned, or we should fail to send some other men who know how to meet a condition when they can recognize it from a theory, for goodness sake take care of us. Some of us are raising cain with the old guard for knowing a thing or two, contrary to our knowledge and consent, and if that element of us is in the majority, we are likely to send up a bunch of theorists who will have to face conditions two or three years before they are likely to learn when it is time to wheel about and face in the right direction. We can make changes all we wish, if we send back to Washington other men who know North Carolina's interests when they see them, but if we do slip our trolley in front of the open switch, please head us off.

By the way, we see that the Democratic programme is now on, and the tariff schedules are being announced on a revision downward scale. Our old friend wool has been cavorting around under a duty of about 80 to 90 per cent. ad valorem, and the Democrats have reported a bill cutting it about half, which is to say a reduction to about 40 to 45 per cent, ad valorem, for revenue purposes. Some other reductions may be made in the same way "for revenue," but if that is the programme, the Democratic House should pay no attention to the irresponsible free list signs made in North Carolina. Some of us have been making a noise like we thought a little old seven per cent. duty on lumber was protection to beat the band, but if we do not know any better, will a wise Democratic House or a kind Providence see that we get some sort of a showing while, as consumers, we pay taxes for the benefit of Uncle Sam and incidentally for the States which get in on the ground floor of favoritism.

We are going to try to look out for ourselves, but since a whole lot of us apparently do not know what that means, the worst may happen. Anyhow, if we do not send to Washington some men who will do just about everything done by the State's present delegation in Congress, take care of old North Carolina and don't make it hard on her on account of free list conversation at the cross-roads.

IN THE INTERURBAN COUNTRY.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday was an "Interurban Edition," and a mammoth and thoroughly splendid publication it is. The inspiration for this stroke of enterprise on the part of the Observer is the 300-mile interurban railway that will link up scores of enterprising cities in the splendid Piedmont country of the Carolinas. Work on the line is now in progress and it is to extend from Greenwood, S. C., to Durham, N. C., passing through six counties in South Carolina and eight in North Carolina.

Quite naturally the source of inspiration was on a large scale and logically the Observer's "Interurban Edition" had to be on a corresponding scale. As to that, the newspaper makers have met the fullest expectations, since they have placed before us a complete and marvelously interesting paper of 100 pages, combined in nine convenient sections. It was an enterprise of great scope to conceive and a herculean task to carry to a conclusion, but the finished product shows how admirably The Observer staff has succeeded on the broad lines involved in its plans. It was a big undertaking and the work does credit to the writers and executive men who scored such a notable achievement in turning out a publication the like of which has rarely been equalled anywhere in this country of newspaper enterprise.

The Interurban Edition was not intended to be an artistic affair, but it certainly is a neat and tidy production. The borders represent a trolley line with cars strung out along it, at once emphasizing the subject which the paper treats so fully and so comprehensively in every detail involved in exploiting the interurban railway that is to be such a powerful factor in the further development of the prosperous Piedmont country of the Carolinas. The Observer says the purpose of the edition "is that the fine conditions of the Piedmont territory may be told to the wider world of readers beyond the bounds of the Carolinas." How well that purpose has been achieved, let the 100 page Observer speak for itself. It will do that better than we can tell it in limited space, but, anyhow, we will say that the Interurban Edition is such a complete exemplification of newspaper enterprise, so superior in its execution, so valuation in its aims and purposes, that The Star congratulates the Observer upon the achievement of a real feat in journalism.

Aside from all this, the chief and real value of the edition is in exploiting the Piedmont country and in portraying its marvelous progress, its astounding prosperity, its matchless possibilities, and its fixed elements of future development. All the substantial factors that make for stupendous possibilities for this country exist from the Atlantic to the Apalachians, and it is in emphasizing these factors in the Piedmont that the Observer's great edition will prove of the most incalculable value. The Interurban railroad is only one of the physical elements in the perspective and it was especially seized upon by the Observer to magnify the advantages as they are combined in that and numerous other particulars.

The edition carries a running but comprehensive story of the rapidly developing cities which are to be linked by the interurban, and to attain that purpose The Observer sent through the territory in both States its own representatives who got the details to give them first hand. The thriving and growing cities are written up and illustrated, and since it is a vain task to attempt to refer to all the revelations made in the story, it is only necessary to say that it was the initial progress and development of the country along natural lines, that brought about the hydro-electric power that now makes it possible to cover the territory with electrically operated cotton mills and suburban railways for economic transportation and traffic.

The centre of all this development and the keystone to the powerful structure which is based on electric energy, is the "Queen City" of Charlotte, the gravity point to which the industrial and agricultural prosperity of the interurban territory is attracted as naturally as the needle of the compass is to the pole.

Senator LaFollette is pretty well satisfied that the American Republic is in danger and that it will never do to risk it any longer to the keeping of President Taft. If the Wisconsin Senator didn't want the nomination himself, our friend Taft would be a fine fellow doing the best he can with a bunch of political Jonahs giving him "fatherly advice."

We don't know who is after our old friend Dr. Wiley, but we are pretty well satisfied that it's somebody who would put water in milk, sand in sugar, sawdust in coffee, red ochre in catsup, and-er-rer-ship Virginia decoctions in the name of the genuine article made in North Carolina ten years before prohibition destroyed a lucrative mountain industry.

The worse thing about being an officeholder is that men who want a finger in the pie are always working to get you out so they can get in, or to land some of their friends. If you can't be charged with doing something wrong they will blame you for not doing what they think should have been done. It's awful, Mabel, how hot the outs can run on the trail of the ins!

CURRENT COMMENT.

There are less than 900,000 sheep and lambs in Virginia. It is believed that a census of the worthless curs roaming the country districts would make a better showing by the dogs than it made by sheep. Sheep raising and dog raising are industries which will not thrive in the same community.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

The Democratic donkey and the G. O. P. elephant, having quit the race at Washington owing to sore feet, can it be that this foretells a victory for the yellow dog?—Washington Post.

It is unfortunate, indeed, for Senator Bristow that his name is attached to an amendment which carries one back to the days of reconstruction and the bloody shirt. That Uncle Joe Cannon should get on his feet in order to hurl worn-out rhetoric at the South is perfectly in keeping, as was the deciding vote of Jim Sherman, Mr. Bristow might have been expected to show more openness to mind. The country desires the dirtct election of Senators. It certainly does not desire any return to Northern suspicion and narrowness toward the South.—Collier's Weekly.

The "dog days" are socalled because the Greeks, on first beholding the star Sirius with the naked eye, were wont to sacrifice a brown dog to appease his wrath; the general belief being that Sirius was the cause of the hot, sultry weather usually attendant upon its appearance, and that on the first morning of its rising the sea boiled, wine turned sour, dogs grew mad, and man became afflicted with all manner of burning fevers, hysterics and frenzies. At Argos, a festival was held during the dog days, known as "Cynophantes," which means that dogs were killed on sight.—London Chronicle.

The Democrats of the House of Representatives passed a bill reducing by about one-half the duty on wool and making great reductions in the duty on woolen manufactures. The insurgents of the Senate will not aid in the passage of this measure, but insist on the passage of the LaFollette bill, which makes reductions in the duties on woolens, but increases the duty on wool. There are no woolen manufactories in the northwest, which is insurgent territory, but plenty of wool-growers. There are some factories in the South and wool-growing is a recognized industry. The attitude of the Democrats is more unselfish than that of the insurgent Republicans.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

How terrible it would have been if Heyburn, of Idaho, had been in Macon last Tuesday afternoon instead of Washington! If he had been in the fine old Georgia city, he could hardly have failed to see the big parade that day of the colored Knights of Pythias, with four bands in the line of march, and an almost endless train of former slaves and their descendants. How much more "infamous" would have seemed the cause of the Confederacy, if he had seen these same colored people, each band playing "Dixie" and each company of Knights coming to port arms as they passed the chief monument in that city—a memorial to those who gave their lives for the Confederacy. That was a fine tribute from the colored people, and surely they would not have saluted the symbol of an "infamous cause."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

There is a broad infinitude of difference in the make-up of Senators Heyburn, of Idaho, and Dixon, of Montana. The former is merely an ordinary little slanderer, narrow, vicious, possessing only one impoverished idea. The latter is a statesman broad enough to recognize two sides to all questions. In the course of the debate in the Senate Dixon took occasion to pay this handsome tribute to the brave soldiers of the Confederacy from North Carolina: "I wish right now to correct one of the errors of history. It was recalled to my mind by a never-to-be-forgotten trip I took over the battlefield of Gettyburg. The men who followed Pickett in his historic charge across the bloody fields at Cemetery Ridge were not all Virginians. Pickett was a Virginian but a majority of the men who constituted the division with which he crossed the open ground in the face of 50 Federal cannons and 80,000 rifles were men of North Carolina. I step aside to advert to this matter that the men of my native State may not be robbed of their part in this historic struggle." Strangely enough Dixon and Heyburn were on the same side opposing the appropriation for a monument to Confederate soldiers at Vicksburg, but Dixon opposed from principle, and backed his position with fair reasoning, while Heyburn's attitude was that of narrowness and prejudice solely.—Charlotte News.

MANASSAS HORSE SHOW

Many Snappy Events and a Yarge Attendance.

Manassas, Va., July 26.—The Manassas horse show opened today with a large attendance and many snappy events. The cavalry drill by a troop from Fort Myer was an attractive feature. The first prize for horses in harness went to Alexandria, owned by Miss Amy Dupont of Wilmington, Del., while Aviator, owned by James A. Andrews, of Somerset, took first in the four-year-old hunter andgreen hunter classes. tMrs. Allen Potts, of Gordonsville, riding Willow King, carried off first honors in the ladies' hunter class, while Melven C. Hazen, of Washington, on The Rebel, won first in saddle class. The winners of the races were as follows:

First five-eighths mile, Lucile R., Mr. Hutchison, Norfolk; second, seven-eighths mile, Merry Bell, Stone Orrison, Washington; third, Steeple Chase, two miles, Ben Lala, George C. Brenton, Manassas. The show closes tomorrow.

AUGUSTA OUT OF LEAGUE.

No Longer a Member of South Atlantic—A "Floater."

Augusta, Ga., July 26.—Augusta is no longer a member of the South Atlantic League of baseball clubs. Secretary Oliver wired T. C. Williams specially commissioned agent of the league tonight, that the local owners surrendered the franchise.

The Augusta club goes to Columbia to play the next three games originally set for here, and then will go to Charleston. Thereafter it will be operated by the league as a "floater."

Psoriasis—A Vilolent Form of Eczema.

Blanche, N. C., July 16, 1910.
Milam Medicine Co., Danville, Va.
Gentlemen—I have been afflicted with a torturing skin disease pronounced by the physicians to be "Psoriasis," and have had it for ten years. No treatment of the physicians ever relieved me, and I continued to grow worse and was unable to do my work. By the advice of my physician I commenced to take Milam on March 9th last. I am now far on the road to recovery, and feel that I will be entirely cured. I am now at work and feel no inconvenience from it.
"I take great pleasure in giving this certificate and think Milam it a great medicine.
Yours truly,
J. W. PINCHBACK.

SANDLIN MURDER CASE TODAY

Wife-Killer and Would-be Suicide May be Placed on Trial in Superior Court This Morning—Cases Yesterday.

L. M. Sandlin, a white man, who a few weeks ago shot and killed his wife in their home on Fourth street, near Red Cross, then turned the weapon upon himself, inflicting a painful wound, will be placed on trial for his life in Superior Court this morning, unless a motion of L. Clayton Grant, Esq., counsel for the defense, for a continuance is granted. A special venire of 150 names were drawn a few days ago to report this morning at 9:30 o'clock from which to select the jury.

Solicitor Henry E. Shaw was seized with a chill in the court room soon after the afternoon session convened and had to go to his room, and during the remainder of the day Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschau looked after the interest of the State. He was familiar with practically all the cases up for consideration during the afternoon as he appeared in them in the Recorder's court. Solicitor Shaw is not thought to be seriously ill and it is expected that he will be able to resume his duties this morning. In the event he is not well enough to be in court, the murder case will be taken up anyway, most likely, unless continued for some other cause. Besides the solicitor the prosecution will be represented by Hon. John D. Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, Esq., having been employed by relatives of Mrs. Dora Sandlin, the woman who was murdered.

Insanity will be the defense. Mr. Grant hopes to secure a continuance of the case and will make a motion to this effect this morning. It was stated yesterday that it is hoped to have the second trial of J. C. Holly, for the murder of young Edward Cromwell, by poisoning, next Tuesday.

The case against D. N. Stanley, charged with violating the driving ordinance in that a string he had attached to the weight used in hitching his horse in the street, was not large enough, resulted in a mistrial, the jury not being able to agree. The jury retired with the case about 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon deliberating for five hours, and was discharged at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. They took their seats in the box yesterday morning and as soon as court convened a juror was withdrawn and a mistrial ordered. Judge Cline remarked that if he had been on the jury he would have found the defendant guilty.

In the case against James Ballard, charged with false pretense, a nol pros with leave was taken. Carrie Patterson, alias James, charged with assault with deadly weapon, was declared guilty by the jury. Sentence was not passed yesterday.

Five Years in Pen.

Walter Medway, colored, was found guilty of the charge of stealing 14 bags of rice from the Seaboard Air Line depot a few weeks ago. He received a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. The negro was arrested at Second and Market streets by Chief of Police John J. Fowler, following the receipt of a message at the hall that he had stolen the rice. He had a cart load of rice at the time of the arrest. The prosecution was represented by Hon. John D. Bellamy.

Son Blount, colored, charged with house breaking, was found guilty. It was alleged that he entered the home of Mattie Johnson, a denizen of the underworld, a few months ago with the evident purpose of stealing money. The negro was seen by the woman and another inmate of the house. It is believed that Blount is responsible for many of the robberies committed in Wilmington this Summer, and when it came time to pass sentence Acting Solicitor Peschau urged the court to give the negro a good long sentence. Accordingly Judge Cline gave him five years in the State penitentiary. He remarked that the maximum punishment for the offense is 10 years. He also stated that Blount barely escaped with his life, for if he had entered the house just a little earlier in the morning, before the break of day, the offense would have been burglary and punishable by death. The defendant was represented by Walter P. Gafford, Esq.

W. D. Austin, who plead guilty a few days ago to a charge of drunkenness, was required to pay a fine of $25 and costs. In the Recorder's court he got a sentence of 30 days on the roads, from which he appealed.

Henry Ford and Alexander Walker, colored, were found guilty of charge of stealing a suit of clothes and $5 in money from Mr. R. M. Russ and were given one year each on the county roads.

The grand jury returned a true bill against Mr. R. T. Windley for failure to take out stevedore license. The license is $50 a year and the applicant is also required to give bond in the sum of $2,000 for the faithful performance of his contracts. A true bill was also returned against Henry Black, charged with highway robbery.

It is believed that the grand jury will return a number of indictments before it concludes its work. It is thought probable that a number of matters are being investigated.

White Man Gets Two Years.

James Sweeney, a young white man, who claims New York city as his home and is undoubtedly what is sometimes termed a "smooth article," was tried on the charge of breaking into the house of Albert Cooper, colored, at 13th and Dock streets, one night some months ago. He conducted his own case, and handled it fairly well for a layman. Albert Cooper and other members of his family testified that the man raised a window and had a portion of his body inside the building when he was discovered and ordered to leave. He did not comply with the request right away, and some one in the house shot at him. In running away from the house Sweeney ran into Mounted Officer D. W. Coleman, about a block away. Officer Coleman asked Sweeney who it was shooting and hollering about a block away, and he replied that he had not heard anything. The stranger looked suspicious and the officer requested that he accompany him to the place from whence came the report of the gun. Sweeney was recognized by the Coopers as being the person who attempted to get in the house. The officer then placed the man under arrest. Sweeney was in fighting mood and gave the officer a lively tussle before he could be gotten under control.

Sweeney admitted in court yesterday that he was drinking, and in the vicinity of 13th and Dock streets, but claimed that he was in search of whiskey and that he did not break into the house.

In charging the jury, Judge Cline said that it could return a verdict of second degree burglary, statutory housebreaking or forcible trespass. It was the latter charge that the jury found him guilty of. Two years on the county roads was the sentence. Sweeney asked that he be sent to the penitentiary instead, in order that he might have enough to get into Virginia after he had served his time, while, if left on the roads in this county he would most likely be taken up for vagrancy immediately upon the completion of his term. Judge Cline said he would take the request under advisement.

Frank Bennett, alias Frank Plentiful, 10-year-old colored youth, charged with burglary, in that he entered the combination store and dwelling of Mrs. Jones, in the night time, at Seventh and Harnett streets, was brought into the court room just before court adjourned, and the circumstances presented briefly to Judge Cline, after which the boy was taken back to jail. It was 6:30 o'clock when the court took recess for the day.

LADY'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Miss Katie Lou Meredith All But Drowned in Surf Yesterday.

Many friends of Miss Katie Lou Meredith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meredith, of this city, will regret to know of quite a trying experience which she suffered yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock while surf bathing at Lumina, Wrightsville Beach, but which fortunately she escaped with no ill effects. Miss Meredith, with a number of companions, was in the surf which was rather rough during the afternoon, and in some way got beyond her depth. She realized her perilous position and shouted to those nearer the shore for help. One of the life savers on duty at the hour heard her cries and quickly went to her rescue, bringing her to the shore unconscious. She soon regained consciousness, however, and was able to return to the city last evening where she received the congratulations of her friends upon the narrow escape and sympathy upon the trying ordeal which she underwent.

A Mr. Chason, who was a member of the party, is also reported to have gone to the rescue of Miss Meredith, and he too is said to have almost been exhausted before reaching the shore. Life Saver Freeman Yopp brought Miss Meredith to the shore and after a few minutes she was restored.

Some person, evidently not acquainted with the North Carolina law as to the furnishing of false information to a newspaper for publication, telephoned during the afternoon that another near-drowning had occurred in front of the Seashore Hotel, giving the names of the parties and the circumstances in detail. The person at the other end of the telephone line gave the name of a clerk at the hotel, but later investigation proved that the clerk had not called during the afternoon, neither had any of his assistants. It was evidently the purpose of some over-zealous person to 'put up a job" on the newspaper, but his nefarious plans went awry.

FUNERAL OF MR. BANCK.

Remains Laid to Rest Yesterday Afternoon—Impressive Services

In the presence of a large assemblage of sympathetic friends, the funeral of the late Mr. Carl Otto Banck was conducted at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the family residence, No. 412 Princess street, the Rev. Harold E. Beattie, pastor of St. Matthew's English Lutheran church, officiating in the absence of Rev. Dr. Snyder, who is out of the city. Among the large number of persons in attendance were members of the Howard Relief Company and of the German-American Alliance, who ateended in a body. These organizations and Germania Lodge, Knights of Pythias, also sent very handsome floral designs, which were conspicuous among a large number from individual friends of the deceased.

The funeral hymns were sweetly sung by a special choir consisting of Mr. Carl W. Polvogt, Mrs. H. F. Otten, Mrs. J. H. Dreher and Miss Katherine Vollers. Following the services at the home, the remains were taken to beautiful Oakdale cemetery where they were laid to rest. The pall-bearers were: Honorary, Messrs. J. G. L. Gieschen, Martin O'Brien, Jos. W. Yates, John Haar, C. H. Dock and M. G. Tiencken; active, Messrs. Henry Gieschen, John H. Rehder, H. L. Vollers, F. W. Richter, M. L. Starkey and John H. Kuck.

NOW MEMBER OF FIRM.

Mr. Harry Lattimer, Jr., Has Made Splendid Success.

The many Wilmington friends of Mr. Harry G. Latimer, Jr., who prior to his mariage about six years ago resided here, but who is now located at Auburn, N. Y., will read with interest the following item from a recent issue of the Auburn (N. Y.) Daily Advertiser:

"Mr. Harry G. Latimer, Jr., was today admitted into partnership with the brokerage firm of A. J. Wright & Co. The announcement will be received with pleasure by Mr. Latimer's large circle of acquaintances, who will unite in wishing him success in his new business relation."

Mr. Latimer left Wilmington for Auburn to accept the position of manager of the Auburn offices of A. J. Wright & Co., one of the foremost brokerage and banking houses on the New York exchange. His admittance to the firm is ample testimony of the effective work he has done in increasing the business of the firm in the Auburn territory, and his many friends here will be more than glad to hear of his splendid success.

SERIOUS CRIME CHARGED

Hermann Shlieve in Jail Charged With Attempting to Criminally Assault His House-keeper, Miss Bertha Griffin.

Hermann Shlieve, who was acquitted of a charge of abandonment in the Superior Court Monday, was yesterday afternoon committed to jail by Justice Bornemann, in default of $1,000 bond, charged with attempting to criminally assault Miss Bertha Griffin, who is said to have kept house for him at 115 Dock street.

The alleged attempt is said to have occurred Wednesday night, between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock. Miss Griffin declares that he resorted to force and handled her roughly, whereupon she began to scream. When she did this Shlieve left the room, she said. She testified at the preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon.

After the girl had completed her testimony Shlieve took the stand, although he was told that he need not testify unless he wished to. He replied that he wanted to testify. On the stand he admitted that he went to the girl's room but declared that it was with no evil intentions, asserting that he only wanted to talk to the young woman.

After Shlieve had been committed to jail in default of the heavy bond Justice Bornemann turned the papers over to Capt. W. N. Harriss, deputy clerk of the Superior Court. The case has been docketed for trial at the July term of Superior Court, which is now in session, and it will doubtless attract considerable attention.

Shlieve and his wife formerly conducted a boarding house, but they have not been living together for some time and the woman is now in charge of the boarding house while Shlieve lives at 115 Dock street. Miss Griffin worked for them for a time while they were living together and when Shlieve sent for her to come and keep house for him recently she obtained the consent of her parents and came to Wilmington. She lives in the country nearby. Miss Griffin is a young woman of about 20 years of age.

REV. JOS. N. STARR DEAD

Passed Away Yesterday in Fayetteville—Relatives in Wilmington

A private telegram yesterday morning brought to friends and relatives in this city the sad news of the death of Rev. Joseph Noble Starr, only son of Col. and Mrs. J. B. Starr, of Fayetteville, and a well-known and highly esteemed Episcopal minister, who is pleasantly remembered here as having at one time supplied the pulpit of St. Paul's P. E. church. Rev. Mr. Starr suffered an attack of peritonitis last Sunday, but although his physicians thought his case serious from the first, it was stated that no alarming features developed until Tuesday evening, when he became much worse with the result that he passed away at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Starr was 43 years of age and was highly educated, a minister of great power and consecration, though not actively engaged the past several months on account of the feeble condition of his aged father, so generally beloved in this State.

The death of Rev. Mr. Starr came as a shock to friends all over the State and as a crushing blow to the family.

The funeral services will be conducted this morning at 11 o'clock from St. John's Episcopal church, in Fayetteville, Rev. Thos. Atkinson, of Baltimore, and other Episcopal clergymen officiating. Rev. Mr. Starr was a nephew of Mrs. H. H. Smith, of this city, and a cousin of Mrs. Jos. S. Mitchell, Mr. George L. Johnson, Miss M. E. Cook and Miss Kate Johnson, of this city, all of whom left last evening for Fayetteville to attend the funeral this morning. They have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

NOT MR. E. BONEY

Teachey Resident Not Man Recently Before Court in This City.

In the issue of The Star on or about June 23rd, 1911, a local article appeared giving an account of unseemly conduct of one "Mr. E. Boney, of Bladenboro," at Wrightsville Beach, N. C., and of his subsequent arrest and fine at Wilmington. Mr. E. Borey, a highly respected citizen of Teachey's, N. C., writes that there is no such resident at Roseboro and inasmuch as some might connect his name with the affair, he desires a correction made. This is cheerfully done and The Star is very glad to say that it was not Mr. E. Boney, of Teachey's, who is known personally in Wilmington and whom everybody knows, does not figure in the courts, especially under charges of this character.

Cape Fear Very Low.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "What used to be the 'historic old Cape Fear,' has dwindled down to an insignificant brook only 15 inches deep at the wharves in this city. We quote Mr. Oliver Evans as saying that the water seems to have run out all at once, and that it is hardly possible to float a 12-inch plank at this point of the river.

Not a True Bill Found.

George Vernon, of this city, who was arrested in June at Houston, Va., charged with breaking into the railroad station, has been released, the grand jury failing to find a true bill against him. This information was conveyed yesterday to friends in this city who ask that this publication be made.

TACKLE SEWERAGE QUESTION

City Council to Give Consideration to This Matter at Special Meeting This Morning—Experts Are to Appraise.

Having let the contract for considerable street improvements, disposed of the cow ordinance and transacted other important matters during the brief period of the present administration, the City Council is now ready to take up in earnest the sewerage question and decide whether or not the city will purchase the existing plant or any portion of it, and if so determine the method of appraising the value. Several meetings may have to be held before any decision in the matter is reached. The first of these will be held at 10 o'clock this morning.

The Councilmen are anxious to have this question settled for all time and will give the matter right of way over everything else in the municipal government until it has been disposed of. The question of whether or not the existing plant will be purchased will most likely occupy the greater portion of the time this morning. It is believed that some members of the Council favor the purchase of the plant of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, provided it can be acquired at a reasonable price, not being willing to pay as much as $150,000, the figures named by the company, for the system. After it has been decided to purchase the plant or a portion of it, in case engineers might say it can be used to advantage, then the Council will most probably consider the question of value and how this may be determined.

Some members of the board are in favor of leaving the appraisal to expert sewerage engineers, who are interested only to the extent of giving their honest opinion of the value of the plant. In other words, they rather favor the proposition made at one time by the sewerage company, that the city select an engineer from some point outside the State, the sewerage company to select another whose address is also in another State, the two to name a third in case of inability to agree, and let the price placed upon the plant by the engineers govern in the transaction.

It is not improbable that the Council will consider the best method of securing an expression from the people of the city. Some one has suggested that a mass meeting be held at the Court House for the purpose of hearing citizens on the matter. All these questions and probably others will be considered by the Council this morning and at subsequent meetings at which the matter is discussed.

FUNERAL OF MISS MURPHY

Laid to Rest Yesterday in Bellevue Cemetery.

At the family residence, No. 410 North Third street, the funeral services of Miss Sallie A. Murphy, whose sad death occurred Tuesday, were held yesterday morning, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

Following the services at the house the body was taken to the family lot in Bellevue cemetery and laid to rest in the presence of the bereaved relatives and many sorrowing friends. Among these were members of the Christian Endeavor Society, of which organization Miss Murphy was one of the foremost members. Just before the final benediction the members of the society present grouped themselves with the pastor at the head of the grave and repeated over the body of their departed friend and fellow worker the benediction used by the Christian Endeavor organization.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. C. Stewart, O. L. Cooper, L. A. Scott, W. H. Blair, B. A. Thees and T. M. Pridgen. At the head of the grave a beautiful floral emblem of the Christian Endeavor Society was placed, and this, with the many other handsome designs of flowers, mutely attested the great love and esteem in which Miss Murphy was held by her many friends.

INSPECT CITY MARKET

Mayor Smith and Dr. Nesbitt Look Things Over.

Mayor Jos. D. Smith and Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, made a trip of inspection through the city market house yesterday morning for the purpose of ascertaining sanitary conditions there and also to plan a number of improvements which will be made at the beginning of the new rental year this Fall.

It is said that a number of the dealers at the market house have been rather lax about obeying the screening ordinance, and Dr. Nesbitt will have a number of placards posted there setting forth the act and notifying all dealers to comply with the provisions contained in it. Placards in regard to the soda fountain regulations have already been distributed in the drug store and soft drink establishments and these, as well as the screening ordinance, will be enforced in the future.

Attached Goods Released.

Following yesterday of a check covering bills due the firms of Wm. E. Springer & Co., and W. Monroe & Co., personal property belonging to B. R. King, formerly of this city, and now of Jacksonville, Fla., which has been held under attachment proceedings, was released. The Retail Merchants' Association was the medium through which the attachment proceedings were started. King was in debt to Wm. E. Springer & Co., to the amount of $21.46 and to W. Monroe & Co., to the amount of $22, totaling $43.46. He left the city sometime ago and when his wife prepared to take the household goods and personal property and follow him the attachment papers were served.

NEW STREET SWEEPER.

Given Trial Yesterday Morning and Proved Satisfactory.

The city has received on trial a new and modern automatic street sweeper, which was given its first test on the local streets yesterday morning under the direction of Capt. R. O. Grant, superintendent of streets, and proved highly satisfactory. Only one horse is required for the vehicle and a single man to operate it. Considerable territory was covered in a few hours, all the pavements on Princess and Market, Front street for several blocks, and Fourth, from the railroad bridge to Nixon street, being thoroughly cleaned. The sweeper has a revolving broom which sweeps up all dirt and refuse and throws it into a conveyor, from which it is ducked into buckets, which, when filled, are removed and placed along the street curbing for the street wagons, thus greatly facilitating the work. It is very likely that the machine will be purchased by the city. It cost about $300.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR VETS

Seaboard to Operate Excursion From Maxton to Wilmington.

(Robeson Advance.)

Mention is made elsewhere in this issue of special rates to the Confederate veterans' reunion next week. Since that part of the paper was printed Mr. M. G. McKenzie, who is in charge of the matter here has been notified that a special train will be run from Hamlet to Wilmington, Tuesday, August 1st, which will be the official train for all Confederate veterans, their families and friends. The train will leave Maxton 11:30 A. M., fare $2.05 for round trip; Pembroke 12.09, fare $1.85; Lumberton [illegible], leaving Wilmington on regular trains fare $1.60. These tickets are good leaving Wilmington on all regular trains up to and including August 6th, which affords a good chance to spend a few days at Wrightsville Beach.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS

Warrants from Justice Harriss' Court Last Night Vagrancy Charged

Under warrants issued from Justice Harriss' court, Constable W. B. Savage and Deputy Sheriff Bert Kelley at an early hour this morning arrested and jailed 25 colored women, charged with vagrancy and maintaining disorderly houses. The first raids were made upon the alley across from Front Street Market House and later the raiding party, accompanied by Justice Harriss, made an excursion into "Brooklyn," arresting a dozen more.

The prisoners were placed in jail and will be given hearing before Justice Harriss today. As the paper goes to press this morning the officers are continuing their crusade against "vagrancy" and disreputable houses, both white and colored defendants being included in the list.

Excursion This Evening.

A delightful evening is assured all who become guests of Letitia Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, for the searchlight excursion to be conducted on the steamer Wilmington tonight. The steamer will leave Market street wharf at 8:15 o'clock and the Delgado band will furnish music. There will be refreshments and other pleasing diversions for all who will attend.

Race Matinee Friday.

At the track of the Wilmington Driving Association at Highwood Park Friday afternoon, a racing matinee will be held. This is the third matinee in the past few months, and they have proven popular with the turfmen and race "fans" in the city. Some fine racing is promised and it is expected that a good crowd will attend.

Ex-SHERIFF E. HEWLETT CELEBRATES 83RD BIRTHDAY.

Sunday at the home of ex-Sheriff E. Hewlett, on Masonboro Sound, the children and grandchildren, as well as a large number of friends of the old gentleman gathered to celebrate his 83rd birthday. Despite his age, Mr. Hewlett is sturdy and alert as ever, although he is afflicted with rheumatism which keeps him confined rather closely. There were present Sunday the following children: Mrs. J. B. Fales, Mrs. J. H. Hewlett, Mrs. William Hollis, Mrs. J. H. Holton and Mr. Addison Hewlett, who makes his home with his father. In addition there were present more than a score of grandchildren and a number of friends. The party spent the entire day with the fine old gentleman. A sumptuous dinner was not the least enjoyable feature of the occasion. Mr. Hewlett received the congratulations of his children and friends, who wished him many happy returns for the day, and expressed the hope that they would be able to gather for many more such happy occasions.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING AT GIBSON YESTERDAY

Mr. W. P. Middleton returned to the city on the late train last night from Gibson, Scotland county, where he attended the marriage of his brother, Mr. D. L. Middleton, also of this city, and Miss Sarah Gibson, the charming and attractive daughter of Mrs. Wm. F. Gibson, which was celebrated at the home of the bride, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. N. S. Coltrane, pastor of the Gibson Methodist church, performing the ceremony. There were present only a few relatives and friends. Mr. W. P. Middleton was best man and Miss Lizie Gibson, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. The other attendants were Mr. L. B. Gibson, brotner of the bride, and Miss Lina Coltrane. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Lola Gibson, sister of the bride, and during the ceremony Mrs. Townsend sang a beautiful selection. The announcement of the marriage of the couple will come as quite a surprise, for the date of the happy event was known only to a few relatives and very close friends.

Mr. B. S. Middleton, of Florence, S. C., a brother of the groom, was present at the marriage, having made the trip in his automobile, and was accompanied on the return trip by the bride and groom and Mr. W. P. Middleton. The trip was made in three hours, including a 25-minute stop at Cheraw, a distance of 65 miles. At Florence the happy couple boarded a train for the mountains of western North Carolina, and will spend their honeymoon at Hendersonville and Waynesville, coming to Wilmington in ten days or two weeks.

The groom is well known and popular in this city. He is traveling salesman for the Craddock-Terry Co., and has made this city his headquarters. His bride is a most attractive young lady and will be given a cordial welcome to Wilmington.

MOORE'S CREEK CELEBRATION

Annual Affair on Historic Battleground Near Currie Today—W. P. Stacy, Esq., to Deliver the Address.

Today at the historic Moore's Creek battleground, near Currie, the annual celebration and all day picnic will be held, commemorating the first signal victory of the Continental army over the British forces in the American revolution.

This custom of celebrating the great battle has been an annual feature for many years and it always serves to draw a large attendance from the several surrounding counties, and the event today promises to be one of the best attended that has ever been held. Low rates are given for the occasion, a rate of 60 cents for the round trip being in effect over the Atlantic Coast Line from this city. Wilmington always sends a large representation to the celebration and today will doubtless prove no exception. The train this morning leaves at 8:45 and returns at 8 o'clock in the evening. Reduced rates are also offered from other nearby towns and cities.

An attractive programme has been arranged for today. W. P. Stacy, Esq., of the Wilmington bar, will deliver the address for the occasion. Mr. Stacy is a gifted and eloquent young orator and his speech at the battle ground today will be heard with pleasure by the great throng that will attend. The Cape Fear Independent Band, of this city, has been secured to furnish the music for the occasion. Another feature that is usually very popular is the basket dinner which is always served.

A monument will be unveiled today to mark the old Wilmington and Fayetteville stage road, which was the route traveled by the British and Tory armies from Cross Creek on their march to join Cornwallis and Clinton at Wilmington. The monument is a home product, having been built by Mr. Frank Meier, of this city, and is said to be a high specimen of artistic work. It bears the following inscription: "Old Wilmington and Fayetteville Stage Road Route Taken by British and Tory Army from Cross Creek to Join Lord Cornwallis and Clinton at Wilmington. They were defeated in the battle of this place, 850 were captured as prisoners of war, February 27th, 1775."

This monument will be a handsome addition to the other memorials already marking the battle ground. There is one monument commemorating the battle, one in honor of Mary Slocumb, the brave heroine of Moore's Creek battle and one to the memory of the brave soldiers of the enemy, who gave their lives in a cause which they believed was just.

The battle of Moore's Creek was fought February 27th, 1775, between the American forces under the command of Col. Richard Caswell and Col. Alexander Lillington, numbering about 1,100 men, and 1,500 Highlanders and regulars of the British army who were marching from Fayetteville to joint Cornwallis and Clinton in Wilmington. At Moore's Creek the Continetal soldiers intercepted their foes and in the ensuing battle the British forces were put to rout, leaving many of their number dead upon the field, and many more were captured by the Americans, in addition to wagons, horses, rifles, medicine, and other supplies and $75,000 in gold. Only one patriot, John Grady, of Duplin, was killed.

The victory was a source of much inspiration to the Continental army and in the dark days that followed, when at times it seemed as if there were no hope for their small forces struggling against the army of what was at that time the mightiest nation of the world, the memory of Moore's Creek never failed to give them renewed hope and courage until at last, by their dauntless courage and indomnitable will they wrested the deciding victory from Cornwallis and his allies at Yorktown and the birth of a new nation, destined to rise to the supreme heights of glory, achievement and wealth was assured.

Negro Lad Run Over by Auto.

A colored lad about seven years old was run over by one of Starkey Bros. automobiles yesterday morning at corner of Third and Market streets. The boy was following a dray, the driver of which was hitting at him with his whip, when the automobile, driven by Chauffeur Hewlett, ran into the boy, knocking him down and one wheel passing over his body. After being knocked down the boy got up and ran for about a quarter of a block. Mr. Hewlett followed and overtook him, when he was carried to the office of Dr. Pride J. Thomas, where he was given the necessary medical attention.

MARRIAGE OF CONVENIENCE

Cincinnati Girl Would Keep the Neighbor's Gossip Quiet.

Cincinnati, July 26.—"A marriage of convenience," performed in Jersey City, July 14th, 1910, was dissolved in Common Pleas Court here today. Dolores Cameron Owens, step-daughter of Ward Baldwin, former professor of engineering in the University of Cincinnati, was the applicant, and supported by her mother's statement, she testified that she had married Malsom W. Owens to "satisfy the neighbors at her home."

According to the testimony of the woman, Mrs. Owens went to New York intending to marry a Dr. Clinton, a surgeon in the navy. But there was a hitch and the surgeon left for sea duty announcing that "there'll be no wedding when my ship comes back."

The young woman and her mother testified that they were mortified by this turn of affairs and Owens whom they had met for the first time on their arrival there, suggested that the girl marry him.

"We thought the neighbors at home would be satisfied if Dolores returned home a bride, and wouldn't ask any questions, but that didn't satisfy them," the mother testified.

The husband filed an answer to the suit admitting all allegations and joining in a request for annulment and it was granted on grounds of failure to provide.

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER, POISON OAK, ETC.

Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Poison Oak, Pimples, etc., show that some unhealthy humor or acid impurity is diseasing the circulation, and that a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid is necessary in order to correct the trouble. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may relieve some of the itching and other discomforts caused by skin diseases, but such treatment has no effect on the blood and therefore cannot do any permanent good. Until the humor is removed from the circulation the cuticle will suffer the effects of an acrid irritation. S. S. S. is the best and quickest remedy because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation, and removes every particle of the humor, whether it be an infection of poisonous plants or from other causes, and makes the blood pure, rich and healthy, allowing it to soothe and nourish the skin instead of irritating and inflaming it with acrid humors. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired sent free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

..Theatrical..

Another highly successful day was chalked up yesterday for both the Bijou and the Bijou's large attendance. The programme yesterday was one of the brightest and merriest ever presented in Wilmington and was received with glad acclaim and thunderous applause of appreciation by the large audiences. All the pictures were swell, while the musical part of the bill was especially delightful. Mr. Frank Banks scored a big hit with one of Joseph Morriss' latest triumphs, "Roses to Me Mean You." It is a beautiful love song and Mr. Banks rendered it in most delightful manner. He was compelled to respond to a hearty encore at each performance. The bill for today is another large and swell one, embracing everything new in the motion picture world and the latest novelties in the musical line. Mr. Banks has another big hit for today. Besides being the popular place of high-class amusement the Bijou is one of the most comfortable places to be found anywhere. It is the cool spot of Wilmington.

VIRGINIANS AT MOREHEAD.

Qualifying for National Shoot at Camp Perry in August.

Richmond, Va., July 26.—With its original force of 43 men reduced to 20, the try-out detail for the Virginia rifle team at the coming national matches at Camp Perry, returned today from Camp Glenn, near Morehead City, N. C. By the time of the arrival in Richmond, Major Stanley W. Martin will have decided upon the 12 shots and three alternates who will constitute the team.

By the process of elimination, one or more of the original detail has been sent home each day, the object being to retain the best men so as to make the most effective team.

Col. Charles A. Dempsey, United States Army, retired, who has been at the camp as inspector of small arms practice, has returned to Richmond. He thinks the outlook for an effective team is excellent and hopes that Virginia will advance some points in standing as a result of the matches. He is especially pleased with the cordial welcome given the Virginias at Morehead City, where the utmost kindness was shown them.

Preliminary shooting at Camp Perry will begin on August 24th, the matches starting a few days later.

LOCAL DOTS

—By deed filed for record yesterday F. W. Dick, trustee, transfers to Hazel O'Gray Miller, for $10 and other considerations, lot on Wrightsville Beach, same being on Atlanta street, 150 feet west of Ocean avenue, 50x100 feet in size.

—Wm. L. Moseley, a colored youth of about 15 years of age, was arrested last night on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. He is accused of attempting to shoot A. Bryant, another negro. Moseley is in the city prison and will probably be tried before the Recorder this morning.

—At the home of Mrs. Jordan, near Fourth and Castle streets, at an early hour yesterday morning, a bold attempt at robbery was made but the intruder was frightened away before he had effected an entrance. Mr. John J. Bell, a neighbor, heard the man and fired at him several times with a pistol, though it is not believed that any of the bullets took effect.

Danville, Va., July 26.—Shortstop Ray Morgan, of the Danville, Virginia League team, was today sold to the Washington American League for $1,500 and will report next week. Catcher Joseph Laughlin, for three years with the local club, has been traded to Petersburg for Infielder Andrew Bowen and Catcher Mace and a cash consideration not stated.

FRECKLES GONE

"The best skin specialist told me that nothing would remove my freckles and that I would carry them to my grave," said a well known society woman, "but I fooled them all with a new drug, othine—double strength, that I bought at J. Hicks Bunting's, which cleared my skin and gave me a fine complexion."

The action of othine is really remarkable, for when applied at night, many of the freckles disappear entirely by morning, and the rest have begun to fade. An ounce is usually all that is needed, even for the worst case.

Be sure to ask J. Hicks Bunting Co., for the double strength othine, as this is sold under a guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

COTTON MARKET STILL ACTIVE

Early Break Followed by Sharp Rally on More General and Aggressive Buying—Showed Continued Excitement.

New York, July 26.—If anything, the cotton market was even more active today than it was yesterday, and showed continued excitement. An early break was followed by a sharp rally on more general and aggressive buying than has been noted previously since the beginning of the big decline, but the improvement was not fully maintained, and the market closed barely steady at a net loss of 10 points in other crops, although new crop deliveries were from 6 to 9 points net higher.

The opening was barely steady, at a decline of 27 points on August, while later deliveries were six points lower to nine points higher, which was a good deal better than due on the sensational weakness reported in Liverpool. Covering was extremely active, and while all positions except July made new low records with new crop deliveries selling 10@11 points net lower. Right after the call, the market soon stiffened up on the demand from shorts, heavy buying by trade interests and aggressive support from sold-out bears who were believed to be working for a sharp rally before the publication of the August bureau report early next week. Other crop positions were slow to improve, but fro ma net loss of 20@27 points worked up to within 7 points of last night's finals, while October rallied from 11.36 to 11.65, and at one time during the afternoon new crop positions generally were about 18 to 20 points net higher. Prominent brokers bid for large blocks of December contracts in advance, and strong interests were evidently working for a reaction or higher prices, but there was nothing in the crop news to create renewed confidence in a sustained advance and the market weakened in the last half hour under continued Southern or New Orleans selling and realizing by early buyers. The big break in Liverpool was attributed to continental selling, which may have been inspired partly by uneasiness over the situation in Morocco. Reports from Georgia and Alabama indicated a maintained or an improved condition of the crop compared with last month.

Receipts today, 878 bales, against 1,569 last week, and 2,277 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 696 bales, against 451 last year, and at Houston, 499 bales, against 108 last year.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands, 13.60; middling gulf, 13.85; sales, 151 bales.

Futures opened barely steady and closed barely steady.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, July 26.—Morocco pushed the rest of the earth off the map today, so far as wheat traders were concerned. War possibilities regarding the corner of Africa, opposite Gibraltar outweighed every other influence and sent prices soaring. Although reaction ensued, the close was firm, at ⅜@¾ net advance. Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back, if not satisfied. Only 50c. at R. R. Bellamy's.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, July 26.—Lonsdale 4-4 bleached sheetings were revised, ½c. a yard downward to a basis of 7½c. during the day, and fine count bleached cotton ½c. a yard. Trading is on a very moderate scale in all cotton goods lines. A few houses are doing a fair trade in men's wear, but the general movement thus far is light on spring goods. Knit goods buyers are asking revisions in prices following a drop in cotton, but agents went to the trade for spring with low prices, and are not conceding requests from buyers.

BEAR MOVEMENT IN STOCKS

Prices Gave Way Before the Onslaught on Market Yesterday—The Groups of Stocks Conspicuous Throughout Day

New York, July 26.—The most forceful bear movement for several weeks was undertaken on the stock exchange today and prices gave way before the onslaught. It is not improbable that today's set back, coming at the top of yesterday's decline, was accelerated by moderate liquidation of investors who may have taken alarm over the latest developments in the Moroccan situation. The gravity of this complication and the prospect of a long delay before the Canadian reciprocity agreement is adopted by the Dominion were the chief factors made use of by the bear party. The force of the attack was spent in the forepart of the day, and during the afternoon the market improved slowly. Toward the close the improvement became more rapid and most of the losses were recovered, with some net gains.

Two groups of stocks were conspicuous throughout the day. They were the coal shares and the issues of the railroads affected most directly by Canadian reciprocity. The latter stocks which have been advanced on the strength of benefits expected from reciprocity, broke sharply.

Canadian Pacific and its affiliated roads and the Hill and Harriman stocks fell from 1 to 2 points.

Reading and Lehigh Valley were the chief beneficiaries of the continuation of yesterday's buying movement in the coal stocks. The strength of Reading and Lehigh Valley was accompanied by reports that developments favorable to shareholders of those properties were under way.

In the industrial group United States Steel was relatively firm, at no time declining more than a fraction.

International Harvester was one of the weakest of the industrials, receding 2¼ points on intimations that the Federal government might proceed against the company. The stock displayed marked strength toward the close, however, ending the day with a loss of less than a point.

London selling was a contributing factor in the market's weakness. The nervousness over the Moroccan dispute was reflected not only in London, where consols touched a new low record, but at all the European financial centers.

The bond market was steady; total sales, par value, $3,533,000; United States bond were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day, 363,900 shares.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF LAND.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned mortgagee, under and by virtue of the power of sale, contained in a certain mortgage deed, executed to the undersigned by C. H. Carter and his wife, A. P. Carter, on the 7th day of April, 1910, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of New Hanover County in Book 59 at Page 371, will, on the 15th day of August, 1911, at 12 o'clock, noon, at the Court House door of New Hanover county, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described lots or parcels of land, conveyed by said mortgage deed, to wit:

First Tract: That certain lot of land beginning at the northeast intersection of Eighth and Orange streets, and running thence north along the eastern line of Eighth street, thirty-three (33) feet; thence eastwardly and parallel with Orange street, seventy-five (75) feet; thence southwardly, and parallel with Eighth street, thirty-three (33) feet to the northern line of Orange street; thence westwardly, along the northern line of Orange street, seventy-five (75) feet, to the beginning; being the western part of Lot No. 6½, in block No. 146, according to the official plan of the City of Wilmington, N. C., and being the same lot of land conveyed by deed from P. Q. Moore and wife to said parties of the first part, bearing date the 7th day of April, 1900, and recorded in Book 58, at page 250, in the office of the Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, aforesaid.

Second Tract: That certain tract, piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in Pender county, State aforesaid, adjoining the lands of Giles Bryant and others, and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a stake near a large sweet gum in the edge of a branch on the line of the W. & W. Railroad Company's lands, and runs south 58 east, about 12 poles, to a large pine, a corner of Giles Bryant's two tracts; thence with said line south 58 east, 25 poles, to a maple stump; thence south 20 east, 24 poles, to a pine, a corner of Giles Bryant's land; thence south 20 east, 20 poles, to a stake on the side of a ditch; thence about north 67½ east, 22 poles, to an old pine stump; thence south 46 east, 26 poles, to a stake near a black gum in a meadow; thence south 54 east, 10 poles, to a lightwood stump and small pine; thence south 45 east, about 12 poles, to a stake in a meadow, a corner of the Morris Tate lands; thence north 40 east, 34 poles, to a small pine in the run of Williamson's Branch; thence up the run of said brinch north 69 east, 36 poles, to the head of said branch, a black gum; thence north about 55 west, about 120 poles, to a stake in the Railroad Company's line (the old James' corner); thence with said Railroad Company's line south 19 west, about 71 poles, to the beginning; containing forty-five and one-half (45½) acres, more or less.

Third Tract: Situate, lying and being in Bladen county, North Carolina, on or near Lyon Swamp, adjoining Haywood Corbett and others, beginning at a pine with 9 pines and two black oak pointers, and runs thence south 12 east, 2,850 feet to a stake; thence south 64 east, 1,780 feet to a stake; thence north 20 east 1,419 feet to a pine and pine pointers; thence north, 26 west, 2,241 feet to a stake; thence north 83 west, 990 feet, to the beginning, containing one hunded (100) acres, more or less, and being part of the tract of land conveyed to the parties of the first part by Max Meyers.

This, the 8th day of July, 1911.

reasons therefor, and while both Secretaries cordially concurred in it the suggestion was mine."

The President says he had every assurance at the time that the Controller Railway & Navigation Company was an independent enterprise working in all good faith, and that no evidence to the contrary has since been brought to his attention. "Of course, it was possible," he continues, "that the owners of the Copper River Railway Company" (Messrs. Morgan and Guggenheim) "might attempt to buy this railroad when and if it were built. It was possible that Mr. Ryan was acting for the interests of the Copper River Railroad, although I did not believe it; but whether this was true or not it was clear that the order of elimination by reason of the restrictions of the act of Congress would not permit the owners of either railroad to shut out any other capitalists." Moreover, he states, the rates to be charged would be always subject to Congressional control, and if government ownership seemed the wise policy under the peculiar circumstances ample land for the right of way, harbor frontage and terminals must always remain available under the law for government use, or if it is preferred to take over to the government a railroad built by private enterprise, condemnation is easy.

"I am as strongly convinced as anyone of the necessity for the conservation of our national resources," says the President, "and as much opposed as any one to their monopolization by large corporations, but my convictions on this point did not deter me from taking the step which I hoped might lead to encouraging the construction of a railway from Controller Bay to the Bering coal fields. I thought the paring down of the amount of public land to be acquired for terminals by the railway company proposing to build the railroad was a poor policy and one not calculated to secure investment or speedy construction."

The President goes on to explain that there are iron-bound limitations covering the method for securing title for government lands and for this reason he feels no fear of any interest obtaining a monopoly. Briefly the restrictions are:

"First: Not more than 160 acres can be entered in a single body by scrip.

"Second: No location of scip along any navigable river or other waters can be made within 80 rods of any lands already located along such waters, and no entry can be allowed extending more than 160 rods along the shore of any navigable water. Along such shore a space of at least 80 rods must be reserved from entry between all such claims.

"Moreover, the statute expressly provides that a road 60 feet in width parallel to the shore line as near as may be practicable, shall be reserved for the use of the public as a highway. (39 stat. L. 412.)

"Third: Nothing in the act contained is to be construed to authorize entries to be made or title to be acquired to the shore of any navigable waters within the district."

"The whole contention that the executive order and the opening to settlement of the shore of Controller Bay grants a monopoly to the railway company," he resumes, "rests on a claim that it has given an opportunity to persons using scrip to appropriate the control of the only available and practicable parts of the channel by the location of the scrip opposite to those parts. If now the location of the scrip opposite to the harbor gives no right to reach the harbor except as Congress may expressly give it, clearly the Controller Railway & Navigation Company has not the slightest opportunity for exclusive appropriation of the harbor facilities unless Congress shall by future act deliberately and voluntarily confer it."

Having explained in detail his reasons for opening up the land in question, the President takes occasion to answer several incidental criticisms. "The order has been criticised because it was not in the form of a proclamation, instead of an order," he writes. This was determined by Mr. Graves, the Forester, he explains, and he quotes a letter of Mr. Graves to the effect that when a comparatively small area is eliminated from a national forest the executive order is very commonly used instead of a proclamation.

As to the charge made on the floor of the Senate that the order was secret, the President says, "This was utterly unfounded." In support of this, he says that ten days before the order was made the details of Ryan's application and the probability of its being granted were given wide publicity. He cites in this respect that the Associated Press carried an account of the matter October 28th, 1910, as taken from a typewritten statement issued by the Interior Department.

The order has also been criticised, he says, on the ground that it did not contain provision delaying its taking effect for 30 days after its publication, as orders restoring land to settlement by homesteaders frequently do. In this respect the President says "An examination of the record furnishes an explanation of this feature of the order as made. When in October the two departments had agreed with my acquiescence that the order should be an elemination of only 320 acres. * * * it was deemed wise to spread on the face of the order a specific declaration that it was made to afford terminals for the Controller Railway & Navigation Company, and as no one else was expected to intervene and take up any part of the eliminated tract, the restoration was made immediate. The form thus amended was submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture, who expressed his preference for the immediate restoration order. When I directed the striking out of the reference to the railway company and the enlargement of the area from 320 acres to 12,800 acres, the form of the order in its provision for immediate restoration was not changed. I have no doubt that this was the reason why the order issued took the form it did. Had the postponement clause been suggested, I would doubtless, have directed it to be embodied in the order. But the event has proven that it was really not important in this case, for in now nearly nine months only the Controller Railway & Navigation Co., has made any scrip entries on the eliminated tract."

Taking up the "Dick to Dick" episode the President says in conclusion:

"Before closing, I desire to allude to a circumstance which the terms of this resolution make apt and relevant. It is a statement by one, Miss M. F. Abbott, that in an examination of the files of the Interior Department a few weeks ago, she found a postscript attached to a letter of July 13, 1910, addressed by Mr. Richard S. Ryan to Secretary Ballinger—and in the present record—urging the elimination of land enough for terminals for the Controller Railway & Navigation Co. The postscript was said to read as follows:

"Dear D——

"I went to see the President the other day. He asked me who it was I represented. I told him according to our agreement, that I represented myself. But this didn't seem to satisfy him. So I sent for Charlie Taft and asked him to tell his brother, the President, who it was I really represented. The President made no further objection to my claim.

"Yours, "DICK."

"The postscript is not now on the files of the department. If it were it would be my duty to transmit it under this resolution. I do not transmit it, not only for the reason that it is not now on the files of the department, but for the reason that it never was on the files of the department, at least as an authentic document. Who is really responsible for its wicked fabrication if it ever existed, or for the viciously false statement made as to its authenticity, is immaterial for the purposes of this communication. The purport of the postscript is, and the intention of the fabricator was, to make Mr. Richard S. Ryan testify through its words to the public that although I was at first opposed in the public interest to granting the elimination which he requested, nevertheless, through the undue influence of my brother, Mr. Charles P. Taft, and the disclosure of the real persons in interest, I was induced improperly and for the promotion of their private gain, to make the order.

"The statement in so far as my brother is concerned—and that is the chief feature of the postscript—is utterly unfounded. He never wrote to me or spoke to me in reference to Richard S. Ryan or on the subject of Controller Bay or the granting of any privileges or the making of any orders in respect to Alaska. He has no interest in Alaska, never had, and knows nothing of the circumstances connected with this transaction. He does not remember that he ever met Richard S. Ryan. He never heard of the Controller Bay Railroad until my cablegram of inquiry reached him, which, with his answer, is in the record.

"Mr. Ballinger says in a telegram in answer to my inquiry, both of which are in the record, that he never received a postscript and that he was in Seattle on the date of July 13, when it was said to have been written.

"Mr. Richard S. Ryan, in a letter which he has sent me without solicitation, and which is in the record, says that he never met my brother, Mr. Charles P. Taft, and that so far as he knows, Mr. Charles P. Taft never had the slightest interest in Controller Bay, in the Controller Railway & Navigation Co., or in any Alaskan company, and he utterly denies writing or signing the alleged postscript. The utter improbability of his writing such a postscript to Mr. Ballinger at Washington, when the latter was away for his vacation for two months, must impress everyone.

"The fact is that Mr. Ballinger never saw the letter of July 13, 1910, to which this postscript is said to have been attached. It was sent to me by Mr. Carr, Secretary Ballinger's private secretary, at Beverly, on July 14—the next day. I read the letter at Beverly in August with other papers and sent them to the White House. It was placed upon the White House files and remained there until April 22, 1911, when it was, by request of Secretary Fisher, returned to the Interior Department, and it was after this that Miss Abbott says she saw the letter with the postscript attached. Mr. Carr saw no such postscript when he sent the letter to me. I did not see it when I read it. No one saw it in the executive office, but it remained to appear as a postscript when Miss Abbott saw the letter in April or May on the files of the Interior Department. All others were denied the sight.

"The person upon whose statement the existence of what has been properly characterized as an amazing postscript is based is a writer for the newspapers and magazines. She was given permission by Secretary Fisher, after consultation with me, to examine all the files in respect to the Controller Bay matter—and this under the supervision of Mr. Brown, then private secretary to the Secretary of the Interior. After the examination, at which she alleges she received this postscript from the hand of Mr. Brown, she prepared an elaborate article on the subject of this order and Controller Bay, which she submitted to Mr. Fisher, and which she discussed with Mr. Fisher at length, but never in the conversation did she mention the existence of the postscript. Mr. Brown, who was with her at the time and showed her the files, testifies that there was no such postscript in the papers, and that he never handed her and she never saw such a postscript there. Similar evidence is given by Mr. Carr and other custodians of the records in the Interior Department.

"Stronger evidence of the falsity and maliciously slanderous character of the alleged postscript could not be had. Its only significance is the light it throws on the bitterness and venom of some of those who take active part in every discussion of Alaskan issues. The intensity of their desire to besmirch all who invest in that district, and all who are officially connected with its administration, operates upon the minds of weak or depraved human instruments and prompts the fabrication of such false testimony as this postscript. I dislike to dwell upon this feature of the case, but it is so full of a lesson that ought to be taken to the heart of every patriotic citizen that I can not pass it over in silence.

"When I made this order I was aware that the condition of public opinion in reference to investments in Alaska, fanned by charges of fraud—some well founded and others of an hysterical and unjust or false character—would lead to an attack upon it and to the questioning of my motives in signing it. I remarked this when I made the order, and I was not mistaken. But a public officer, when he conceives it his duty to take affirmative action in the public interest, has no more right to allow fear of unjust criticism and attack to hinder him from taking that action than he would to allow personal and dishonest motives to affect him. It is easy in cases like this to take the course which timidity prompts, and to do nothing, but such a course does not inure to the public weal.

"I am in full sympathy with the concern of reasonable and patriotic men that the valuable resources of Alaska should not be turned over to be exploited for the profit of greedy, absorbing, monopolistic corporations or syndicates. Whatever the attempts which have been made, no one, as a mattor of fact, has secured in Alaska any undue privilege or franchise not completely under the control of Congress, and in all the scandal with which the public has been regaled very few specific instances of corrupt or improper attempts to acquire vested interests in Alaska have been shown by evidence that would stand the test of judicial examination. Notwithstanding this, however, I am in full agreement with the view that every care, both in administration and in legislation, must be observed to prevent the corrupt or unfair acquisition of undue privilege, franchise, or right from the government in that district. But every one must know that the resources of Alaska can never become available either to the people of Alaska or to the public of the United States unless reasonable opportunity is granted to those who would invest their money to secure a return proportionate to the risk run in the investment and reasonable under all the circumstances.

"On the other hand, the acrimony of spirit and the intense malice that have been engendered in respect of the administration of the government in Alaska and in the consideration of measures proposed for her relief and the wanton recklessness and eagerness with which attempts have made to besmirch the characters of high officials having to do with the Alaskan government, and even of persons not in public life, present a condition that calls for condemnation and requires that the public be warned of the demoralization that has been produced by the hysterical suspicions of good people and the unscrupulous and corrupt misrepresentations of the wicked. The helpless state to which the credulity of some and the malevolent scandal-mongering of others have brought the people of Alaska in their struggle for its development, ought to give the public pause, for until a juster and fairer view be taken investments in Alaska, which is necessary to its development, will be impossible, and honest administrators and legislators will be deterred from the advocacy and putting into operation of those policies in regard to the Territory which are necessary to its progress and prosperity."

HOKE SMITH NOT COMING

Will Not Leave Georgia In Time to Vote on Wool Bill.

Washington, July 26.—Surprise was expressed by Democratic Senators today when it was learned that Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, probably would not be in Washington in time to qualify and vote on the wool bill. The desirability of having him here in view of the prospect of a close vote had been canvassed among the leaders Tuesday and there was an understanding on the part of some that Senator Martin, chairman of the Democratic caucus was to telegraph him to be present. Some senators were so assured on this point that they stated to newspaper men that such a message had been sent. When it became known at last night's caucus that Mr. Martin had not felt authorized to act Senator Reed introduced a resolution ir the Democratic caucus last night declaring it the sense of the meeting that the Georgia Senator should be in his seat. No action was taken, however.

POLICE ROUTED WITH EGGS.

Chicago Women Use Product of The Hen as Weapons.

Chicago, July 25.—Women sympathizers joined in the rioting today in the "strike" of the peddlers against the anti-noise ordinance, which prevents them from shouting their wares on the streets.

Three persons were seriously injured and scores were attacked in riots which occurred in every section of the city. Wagons owned by peddlers who refused to join the strikers were overturned, the contents dumped into the streets and the owners were made a target for a fusillade of stones thrown by women. With eggs as weapons, a crowd of women attacked a squad of policemen and put them to flight.

Produce merchants say that the fruit and vegetable trade has decreased 75 per cent. since the beginning of the strike, three days ago.

An appeal will be made to Mayor Harrison to have the law repealed.

FORK 4 INCHES IN HER BRAIN

Girl of 12 Kept Alive Two Weeks, But Now Dying.

Harrisonburg, Va., July 25.—Ruth Martin, 12-year-old daughter of Rev. J. Snively, of Hinton, Rockingham county, is not expected to live through the night.

Two weeks ago Ruth fell from her father's wheat wagon, landing on one of the prongs of a pitchfork which she held in her hand. The prong entered the child's forehead just above the eye, going four inches into the brain.

The girl's right arm and left leg were totally paralyzed, but for a week hope was entertained for her recovery. Last Thursday she became worse and yesterday a second operation was performed.

PLANS FOR LINCOLN MEMORIAL.

Commission Would Erect Monument in Potomac Park.

Washington, July 25.—The Commission on Fine Arts today recommended that the $2,000,000 memorial to Abraham Lincoln in this city take the form of a monument in Potomac Park on the same axis as the Capitol and Washington Monument. A design of the memorial, the report says, has not been selected.

"It is impossible," reads the report, "to overestimate the importance of giving to a monument of the size and significance of the Lincoln Memorial complete and undisputed domination over a large area, together with a certain dignified isolation from competing structures or even from minor features unrelated to it. Upon no other possible site in the city of Washington can this end be assured so completely as upon the Potomac Park site."

The report quotes the late Secretary of State John Hay, one of Lincoln's secretaries and biographer, as being in favor of this site. "Lincoln," Mr. Hay is quoted as saying, " of all Americans next to Washington, deserves this place of honor. He was of the immortal. You must not approach too close to the immortal. His monument should stand alone, remote from the common habitation of man, apart from the business and turmoil of the city; isolated, distinguished and serene. Of all the sites, this one near the Potomac is the most suited for the purpose."

COMMISSION RULE WINS.

Overwhelming Majority Astounds the Antis, Vote Being Two to One.

Passaic, N. J., July 27th.—Commission government won in Passaic today by an overwhelming majority of 931 votes, more than two votes for every one against, the total being 1,792 to 861. It was a most complete victory and astounded the antis, who were confident that the pros would fail to get the minimum of 1,352 required by the law.

The Second and Third wards, where the commuters, business and professional men reside, cast sweeping majorities for referendum, the totals being 1,058 against 248. In the Fourth ward, which was doubtful, the antis were given an awful shock, losing out by 330 to 606.

Even more astonishing was the result in the First ward, where the opposition was confident of fully 500 majority. Of the 800 eligibles only 411 turned out, 283 voting against. Twelve of the 16 districts ere carried. In the Second district of the Third ward 228 voted for and only 28 against.

The best anti districts were the First, of the First ward, where 121 of the 162 voted were against the prohibition.

In face of the defeats at Bayonne, Jersey City, Hoboken and New Brunswick, the outcome is most remarkable, the victory being at odds of more than two to one.

The Burning Question

is the money question. It's on most people's minds. Have you ever given it a thought? What are you doing with your earnings? Letting it go each week with nothing to show for it? You should put a stop to that at once by opening a savings account at our bank, and at the end of the year you have something to show for your labor, and the best time to start is right now. One dollar will do it.
